Port Arthur Man Alleged To Have Fired Four Shots

PORT ARTHUR (CP)—A 40-year-old woman is dead and her husband and Magistrate B. J. McKittrick are in serious condition following a shooting affray in the juvenile and family court here this morning.

Dead is Mrs. William Gray, who police say was shot in the chest at close range by her husband shortly after the two had appeared in the family court here, where Mr. Gray was facing a charge of non-support of his wife and three children.

Police say the case had just opened when Gray suddenly pulled a gun from his pocket, turned it on his wife and fired. He then turned the gun on Judge McKittrick, shooting him in the chest.

Witnesses said the 50-year-old Gray then held the gun close, pointing it at defence counsel S. H. Davis. Apparently recognizing his lawyer before pulling the trigger again, Gray turned the gun on himself, inflicting a chest wound.

The wound did not appear to be serious and while spectators watched in frozen horror Gray reloaded the 32-calibre gun and shot himself again.

Condition of both injured, who were rushed to hospital in an ambulance, was described as serious.

Witnesses said the shooting took place so fast that they had no opportunity to stop Gray, a ticket taker at a local theatre.

Judge McKittrick, formerly of Winnipeg, was appointed judge of the Juvenile and Family Court at the lakehead in October, 1945.

The Gray family came to Port Arthur recently from eastern Ontario, but their former home town was not known.

Late MARCEL RAINVILLE

Former Top-Ranking Canadian Davis Cup Star Found Drowned

MONTREAL (CP)—A body taken from Montreal Harbor this morning has been positively identified as that of Marcel Rainville, former Canadian Davis Cup tennis star, city morgue officials said today.

A morgue official said a number of persons who knew the Montreal lawyer and athlete had identified the body, which was found by a tugboat crew.

The body was discovered near Victoria Pier, where bystanders Friday night found a pile of clothing and a sheet of paper with the name "Marcel Rainville" scribbled on it.

Police at that time said there had been no report of Rainville as missing and they were unable to confirm whether the clothing belonged to him.

Rainville, in his early 40s, had been living in various Montreal hotels recently and police were unable to reach his wife.

He was a law graduate of the University of Montreal, where he first starred as a tennis player.

Rainville, so small he was known as "Pee-Wee," ranked at the top of Canada's tennis players between 1932 and 1936. Perhaps his greatest effort for Canadian tennis was in the 1931 Davis Cup matches at Montreal, when he won his match—a long-drawn-out, gruelling affair—with the United States star, Sidney Wood.

Rainville came to the B.C. coast in the early 30s to play in the Canadian championships at Vancouver.

Bombing At Shanghai Protested By Britain

LONDON (AP)—Britain today announced a protest had been lodged with the Chinese Nationalist government at Canton over an air attack on the British freighter Achises at Communist-held Shanghai.

A Foreign Office spokesman said the owners of the ship, Alfred Holt and Company Ltd., received a cable from Hongkong saying the ship was machine-gunned and bombed as it entered Shanghai. The message listed four casualties.

The spokesman said Britain reserved the right to claim compensation.

May Stop Foreign Shipping

The raid resulted in the diversion of several foreign ships from this port, normally one of the world's busiest. All foreign shipping is likely to stop immediately.

A Nationalist blockade was announced Monday. It was to begin June 26. Communist ports from Foochow, south of here, 1,200 miles northward into Manchuria were named.

The Achises was hit about 8 a.m. local time, just after she had turned from the Yangtze into the Whangpoo River.

Capt. J. E. Watson said a bomb struck her first. Then a plane strafed the ship.

Watson said there was no question in his mind that the attack was directed at the ship. He said

Yugoslavs Bitter At Big Four Ruling On Austrian Treaty

BELGRADE (AP)—With "deepest bitterness" Yugoslavia today denounced the decision of the Big Four Foreign Ministers rejecting her claim for Austrian territory and reparations.

A formal statement was issued by the Foreign Affairs Ministry of Marshal Tito's government on the results of the Big Four meeting adjourned Monday in Paris.

Yugoslavia said she would never renounce her justified territorial claims to Slovene-Carinthia (in the southern part of Austria) or her claim to reparations payments on the part of Austria—namely compensation for damage suffered during the last war, or to any other justified claim against Austria.

Tito's government has been denounced by the Moscow-led Cominform as anti-Marxist.

Drew To Address Canadair Workers

MONTREAL (CP)—Progressive Conservative leader George Drew, campaigning in the Eastern Townships today, will address employees of Canadair Ltd. when he visits the Montreal district tomorrow.

Party headquarters, which released an itinerary of his Montreal visit, said he will stop at the highway restaurant to speak to the employees of the aircraft plant whose purchase by the Electric Boat Company he has criticized during the election campaign.

Dog Air Passenger

MONTREAL (CP)—Mandy, a small mongrel dog being flown from London to Vancouver, today was on the loose somewhere near the Goose Bay, Labrador, air base with a price on her head and a goodly number of the air station personnel looking for her.

Church-State War In Czechoslovakia Mounts In Tension

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP)—Church-state tension mounted today as the Communist government was reported seizing Roman Catholic opponents in Moravia.

Churchmen reported numerous clergy and prominent laymen arrested in that province, southeast of Prague near the Austrian and Hungarian border junction.

One source reported, without confirmation, that Archbishop Joseph Matocha of Olomouc, second city of Moravia, had been placed under a police watch like that maintained for the last five days over Archbishop Joseph Beran of Prague.

Reports of the arrests followed a hectic week-end during which a pastoral letter from Archbishop Beran was read in churches throughout the country. It denounced the separatist Catholic Action group sponsored by the government. The archbishop's sermon in Prague was broken up by Communist heckling.

The Moravian arrests were made, church sources said, to crack resistance of loyal Roman Catholics to the separatist group. The Vatican, meanwhile, denounced the group as "schismatic, anti-Catholic, a Communist tool and in opposition to the episcopate."

The Supreme Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office said voluntary membership in the organization would automatically bring excommunication to those joining. It further pronounced the excommunication of "the authors and promoters of it." By implication this affects President Klement Gottwald and other official sponsors.

Excommunication denies the sacraments and the companionships of Roman Catholics to the person so banned.

Names Copied From Gravestones

Church circles here denied the government's claim of widespread support for its new movement. They said the government listed as supporters priests and laymen who had signed only through force and that other names were "copied off gravestones."

Archbishop Beran, who has led the church's fight in Czechoslovakia, spent Monday in seclusion in his Prague palace.

Rumors that he was under formal arrest could not be confirmed, but security police had cut him off from any communication with the outside world either by telephone or personal visits.

The guard was believed to have been tightened because the archbishop was able to smuggle out last Saturday a pastoral letter which his priests read at Sunday masses. The letter declared he would never sign an agreement with a government which subjugated the church to an anti-Christian ideology.

Confirm Sentence Of Gandhi Slayers

SIMLA, India (AP)—An East Punjab high court today confirmed a death sentence against two Hindu journalists for the slaying of Mohandas K. Gandhi.

The court confirmed a New Delhi court's death penalty against Marayan V. Godse and Harayan B. Apte and sentences of life imprisonment for Vishnu Karkare and Madan Lal, in connection with the crime.

The Punjab Court reversed the Delhi tribunal's judgment in the case of three other defendants in the case, however. They acquitted Battarya Parchure and Kistayya Shankar, both of whom had been sentenced to life.

The court recommended clemency for Gopal Godse, brother of the chief defendant, who had received a life sentence.

Fear 40 Dead, 563 Missing In Okinawa, Japan Typhoon

TOKYO (AP)—Police estimated 40 persons were killed and 563 were missing in a typhoon that struck Okinawa and southern Japan early today.

The typhoon, with winds up to 115 miles an hour, is expected to hit the big northern Japanese island of Honshu tomorrow.

(Reuters' news agency said the 8,591-ton U.S. steamship Lightning was grounded 150 miles west of Naha, Okinawa. Two tug boats were rushing to help her.)

Destruction in southern Japan was described as heavy. More than 500 houses were reported destroyed. An estimated 4,500 farms were flooded by torrential rains.

Communications have been disrupted. Most of Kyushu Island's telephone service had been cut off from this section of Japan. Railroad lines were washed out in many places.

Sixty-two boats were destroyed or set adrift. Police said a 2,500-ton freighter went aground at the entrance of Nakata Bay in northern Kyushu.

Heavy rains inundated central Japan.

'Hands Off,' Say Ruhr Workers
German workers parade to protest the partial dismantling of their nitrogen-producing plant near Gelsenkirchen in the Ruhr Valley. Signs read, "Dismantling brings need and misery," "Don't defraud our youth," and "Hands off." Similar demonstrations and outbreaks of violence occurred at other plants earmarked for war reparations in the area.

Western Observers Say Austria Never To Go Red Willingly

By G. K. HODENFIELD
VIENNA (AP)—Western observers and diplomats here are convinced Austria will never go Communist without active interference by Russia.

Should the Paris agreement, announced Monday, result in a treaty of independence for Austria, they firmly believe this country would stay outside the Iron Curtain.

There are many reasons why Communism has been a losing cause in Austria.

First, the country is primarily Roman Catholic; secondly, Russian troops came to Austria as conquerors, not liberators. Their arrival in Vienna touched off a wave of looting, raping and acts of violence whose memory lingers.

Austria has been occupied for the last four years. During that time the West has brought in huge shipments of gifts and grants to keep the country alive. On the other hand, millions of dollars' worth of goods seized by the Russians as German assets or war booty, have flowed out of the country to the East.

Seven years of German propaganda—from the Hitler Anschluss in 1938 to V-E Day in 1945—drilled into the minds of Austrians that communism was the great black plague of the 20th century.

German Chiefs Send Last-Minute Appeal To Reds On P.O.W.'s

WIESBADEN, Germany (UP)—Western Germany's 11 chiefs of staff made a last-minute appeal to the Big Four Foreign Ministers to get German prisoners of war home from Russia, it was disclosed today.

The ministers-president made the appeal in a letter to Paris Monday. It was sent through the Western Allies' liaison officers here.

The letter expressed "deep sorrow" over the U.S.S.R.'s negative reply to western diplomatic notes inquiring about the German P.O.W.'s. It said "The ministers-president in protest against the continued detention of German prisoners of war, which is contrary to right and humanity."

The letter asked the Foreign Ministers' Council to arrive at a joint decision on the prisoners' return.

Big 4 Agreement Gets Cheers By Both Sides

LONDON (AP)—The Big Four Foreign Ministers' Paris conference was hailed today from both sides of the Iron Curtain as a step toward better east-west relations.

Moscow's Communist Party organ, Pravda, carried a long review of the talks. The Soviet paper worked in a few jabs at "American businessmen" and other pet targets, but generally concluded that the conference aided in "easing" the international atmosphere.

"The real significance of the agreement which has been reached," Pravda said, "is that it demonstrates conclusively how agreements* are possible when the practice of dictation is left at the threshold of the council's chamber."

The paper said it is significant that the Paris agreement denotes "an essential step in the direction of re-establishing the activity of the Council of Foreign Ministers."

BEVIN'S OPINION
Foreign Secretary Bevin voiced optimism over the results of the talks and said they "open up the possibilities of co-operation once again." He told reporters on his return to London that the Foreign Ministers had managed to "lay the foundation and now we must proceed to build on it."

"I have faith in our neighbors and I hope they have faith in us," he said.

Austrians received with jubilation news of the Big Four decision to conclude an independence treaty for their country. Chancellor Leopold Figl said in Vienna that the Paris decision is "a big step toward peace and the freedom of humanity."

American officials in Berlin voiced belief the Big Four decisions on the German questions might help untangle the chaos in the former Reich capital.

West German officials themselves were wary in their reaction to the possibility of all-German conferences between east and west.

REDS FLYING HOME
BERLIN (Reuter)—Four Soviet aircraft, believed to be carrying Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister, and his party from the Paris Big Four talks to Moscow, landed today at Dailgow Airport in the Russian zone—outside Berlin.

The party was expected to proceed to Moscow later.

One source said Vishinsky, while in Berlin, would confer with Ambassador V. S. Semenov, the Soviet political adviser.

Charge Reds Foment Labor Trouble On British Docks

LONDON (CP)—The threat of major labor trouble hung today over London's sprawling dock area as stevedores again refused to unload the Canadian ships Beaverbrae and Argomont.

The stevedores will meet tonight to decide what to do about the Canadian freighters tied up in the Thames since early April. The cargoes they carried to Britain are still aboard.

Meanwhile the Labor Ministry has directed the National Dock Labor Board, the employment agency for waterfront workers, to withhold any action which might provoke major trouble among the stevedores.

Both labor leaders and spokesmen for the board have warned that Communist influences are at work among the dock area's 25,000 men, seeking to provoke a general strike of stevedores.

The crew members of the two Canadian ships are on strike here.

Murder, Attempted Suicide In Oak Bay

Magistrate, Two Litigants Shot, Killed

PORT ARTHUR (CP)—William Gray, 50, died in a hospital today from self-inflicted wounds shortly after a shooting affray in the family court in which he killed his wife and the presiding judge, Bruce J. McKittrick.

Gray's death ended the life of the last of the three victims of the shooting, which came with abrupt suddenness while Judge McKittrick was hearing a non-support charge against Gray, a ticket seller at a local theatre.

Only persons present at the time in addition to the judge, the complainant and defendant were S. H. Davis, Gray's lawyer, and Mrs. Frances Hodgson, a court stenographer.

Witnesses said Mrs. Gray, the first victim, died instantly when her husband, formerly with the Ontario provincial police at Sudbury, suddenly pulled a gun from his pocket and fired into her chest at close range. The man then swung to the bench, firing a shot at Judge McKittrick, 45, formerly of Winnipeg. The judge collapsed and died a short time later in the hospital.

Shock Paralyzes Onlookers

Spectators in the court room, too paralyzed to move by the shock of the sudden shooting, watched Gray wheel towards S. H. Davis, his defence counsel, hugging the revolver close. Apparently recognizing his lawyer, Gray turned the revolver on himself and fired into his chest.

Witnesses said the first shot seemed to have little effect. Gray reloaded his gun and fired a second time, collapsing slowly to the floor.

Police, who were not in the room at the time, came running when the sound of revolver shots was heard. Before they could interfere, however, the shooting was over.

Ambulances were called and the three victims were taken to hospital. Mrs. Gray already was dead and Judge McKittrick died shortly after admittance.

Police said the sudden flurry of shots came shortly after Judge McKittrick had opened the hearing in the non-support case, laid against Gray on behalf of his wife and three children.

Court was proceeding in normal fashion when Gray's hand suddenly flashed to his pocket and came out with the gun.

It was the first shooting in Port Arthur's history to take place in a court room and one of the few instances when it has happened anywhere in Canada.

Judge McKittrick came to the lakehead in October, 1945, from Winnipeg, following a judicial appointment. The Grays moved here recently from eastern Ontario.

Separated from her husband for two years, Mrs. Gray and the three children—William, nine; Rodney, seven, and Margaret, six—had been living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Maki.

Her husband was reported to have been annoyed over what he considered unfair treatment in so far as the non-support charge was concerned.

It was not known where he obtained the revolver used in the shooting.

Bystander Shot In Gun Battle

Curious throng gathers around the body of James Germa, slain in a two-hour gun battle in Sudbury. Clarence Brousseau, who killed Germa and two others with a .303 rifle from the windows of his house near the Sudbury city limits, was found dead in his kitchen when police finally rushed the house. He had shot himself. He also wounded three other men.—(CP Photo)

Of the four whose lives were ended by bullets in the Sudbury affray, two were policemen—Constables Ed Terrell and Jerry Dault. One of the victims is shown above.

U.S. Navy May Fit Two More Carriers For A-Bomb Lift

WASHINGTON (UP)—Defence Secretary Louis Johnson disclosed today he had authorized the navy to refit two more carriers to handle planes that are believed to be capable of taking off with atomic bombs.

Johnson departed from the text of a prepared speech at the National War College graduation exercises to reveal details of the carrier program.

He said modernization of the two flattops will cost an estimated $80,000,000 and that the plans will be sent to Congress with President Truman's endorsement.

When the two ships are refitted, probably in about 16 months to two years, the navy will have eight flattops big enough to fly atomic bombers and other heavy aircraft.

The new modernization project apparently was intended to compensate the navy for the loss of its "dream carrier," the 65,000-ton United States, which Johnson recently canceled.

Five New Polio Cases

SAN ANGELO, Texas (AP)—Five new polio victims were in hospitals today, bringing to 63 the number under treatment in this stricken west Texas city. Houston reported three new cases. So did Dallas. San Antonio had one new case.

Fear 40 Dead, 563 Missing In Okinawa, Japan Typhoon

TOKYO (AP)—Police estimated 40 persons were killed and 563 were missing in a typhoon that struck Okinawa and southern Japan early today.

Not Too Much Accomplished Says Acheson, Back In U.S.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of State Dean Acheson returned by plane from the Big Four Foreign Ministers meeting in Paris today and told President Truman "I don't think we really accomplished too much."

Acheson made the remark as he stepped from the Presidential plane Independence and received Mr. Truman's personal congratulations on "an excellent job" at Paris.

The two drove immediately to the White House where Acheson reported to the President on the conference.

"I'll have a report for you later," Mr. Truman told newsmen as he left for the White House. This was taken to mean that the White House may issue a statement on the Paris talks after Acheson gives the President a full-in, or that the President will discuss it at Thursday's press conference.

Vice-President Alben W. Barkley, cabinet members and members of the Defence Department and the diplomatic corps also are present at the airport to greet Acheson. Returning with Acheson aboard the Presidential Plane Independence were Mrs. Acheson, John Foster Dulles, Republican foreign policy adviser, and Mrs. Dulles; Charles E. Bohlen, State Department Russian expert, and three aides.

It was considered possible that Acheson, like his predecessors, might tell the American people about the Paris conference in a radio address.

U.S. Soldier Jailed; Shot German Girl

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—Sgt. Duane A. Geyer of Seattle was sentenced to five years' imprisonment Monday for shooting his German girl friend.

The 30-year-old soldier told a military court he shot Sonya Riesener, 20, because he was torn between love for her and for his wife. Miss Riesener recovered from the two bullets Sgt. Geyer pumped into her chest.

Jets In Display At Brantford Show

OTTAWA (CP)—Five jet-propelled Vampires from the St. Hubert Airport, Montreal, will put on a special display at the air show at Brantford, Ont., Saturday, the air force announced today.

Among the pilots, all veterans of the Second World War with enemy aircraft to their credit, are Ftl. Lt. D. C. (Don) Laubman of Provost, Alta., and Ftl. Lt. R. D. (Joe) Schultz of Bashaw, Alta.

Russians Opposing French Proposal On Inventory Of Arms

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. (UP)—A French proposal for an international inventory of "conventional" armaments—not including the atomic bomb—ran into opposition by Russia today, and a decision on starting such a census was postponed for a week.

The French suggestion was made to the working committee of the U.N.'s commission for conventional armaments on May 26. Specifically excluding atomic weapons, it called for a worldwide count of arms and armed forces, with the U.N. central organ empowered to verify data provided by member governments.

Russia, with strong support from the Ukraine, told the working committee today that the proposed census was useless as a basis for world-wide arms reduction unless the U.N. first took steps to outlaw atomic weapons, destroy stockpiles of A-bombs and establish an international control of nuclear energy.

U.S. delegate Frank C. Nash accused the Soviets of "throwing red herrings" into the debate by contending the General Assembly had ordered simultaneous consideration of arms reduction and the outlawing of atomic weapons. The two subjects were separate, and should be considered separately, he said.

Canada's George Ignatieff asked for a recess until next Tuesday to consider today's arguments before taking a vote on the French proposal.

Ship Hits Mine Off France; All Aboard Saved

DUNKERQUE (UP)—The Belgian Channel steamer Princess Astrid, carrying 283 persons, hit a mine, blew up and sank 15 miles off Dunkerque today.

All of the 218 passengers and 65 crewmen were reported saved.

The Princess Astrid had put out from nearby Ostend, Belgium, for the regular afternoon run to Dover, England. It hit the mine while still in coastal waters near Dunkerque.

A fleet of rescue boats poured out from the coast to pick up the survivors. The scene was reminiscent in miniature of the historic marine feat here in the summer of 1940, when a ragtag fleet of rescue craft snatched British and French armies from the Nazis.

Russia May Soon Test Atomic Bomb

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Told that Russia soon may be testing an atomic bomb, many of the United States' governors appeared ready today to back the administration's arms program for Western Europe.

Although no official government conference action may be forthcoming, general reaction was favorable to an appeal by Lt.-Gen. Walter Bedell Smith for support of a program of arms and full-weight economic aid for western democracies opposing communism.

U.S. Canned Salmon Bought Via E.C.A.

ASTORIA, Ore. (AP)—Columbia River salmon packers are selling canned salmon to Great Britain after all.

This was disclosed here, although amounts were not revealed. The fish is being bought in private trade channels through Economic Co-operation Administration credits.

Earlier Representative Norblad (Rep.-Ore.) had protested that the British were using E.C.A. funds to buy Canadian salmon, bypassing Columbia River products.

Attempts To Settle Berlin Rail Strike End With Deadlock

BERLIN (AP)—Attempts to end Berlin's month-old rail strike ran up against a stone wall today. Both the strikers and the Soviet-appointed railway management refused to budge from their positions.

This apparently is the major point now at issue: The strikers want job security and recognition of their union, but acceptance of their demands would force the Communist railway system to recognize an anti-Communist union.

The strike continues to block four-power action on German economic problems. The now adjourned Paris conference of Foreign Ministers told occupation authorities to try to achieve economic and political unity in Germany.

Until the rail service in Berlin is settled, any agreements would be hamstrung, since trade pacts are useless without transportation.

Seventy-five-year-old Francis Edward Smith, 2325 Dunlevy Street, Oak Bay, when being treated for self-inflicted razor slashes at Jubilee Hospital, was charged this morning with the murder of his wife, Sarah Alice Smith, aged 75.

The elderly woman, apparently dead since Sunday night, was found fully clothed lying on the bed in the northwest corner of the four-room frame bungalow.

Oak Bay police reported that death was due to strangulation, and have labeled the case as "murder and attempted suicide."

An inquest in Mrs. Smith's death will be held Thursday morning at 10 at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Parlors.

In Jubilee Hospital Mr. Smith is reported to be suffering from serious wounds but is expected to recover. Deputy Chief of Police L. G. Clayards said Smith had a razor slash on the left side of the neck and to both wrists.

Dr. E. Nash was the first on the scene. He told Chief of Police Hugh Reston that he was called by a friend of the family, who had been called by Mr. Smith. Police got the message to attend at 10:30.

Constable Charles Bates responded to the call and he was followed by the deputy chief and Robert Smith, Oak Bay juvenile officer.

After talking with the doctor, police said that the dead woman had been strangled. The doctor found her lying on the bed her mouth agape. He fastened a bandage around the head to close the mouth.

A workman who was employed not far from the Smith residence said he saw an elderly gentleman he believed to have been living at 2325 Dunlevy walking up and down the street in front of the house at 7 this morning.

Reported Dead Since Sunday

Deputy Chief Clayards spoke to the accused husband in hospital and said he learned Mrs. Smith had been dead since Sunday. He is under police guard at the hospital.

Mr. Smith's razor wounds are not believed to have been inflicted long before the arrival of the doctor. There was little evidence of blood around the house. The elderly couple had been married for 50 years.

The Smiths moved into the Dunlevy Street house about a year ago. It is owned by Mrs. H. Gibbard, 2389 Dalhousie Street.

Next door neighbor, Mrs. Leslie Dash, 2339 Dunlevy, said that she did not understand it. "They appeared at all times to have been devoted to each other. They were good neighbors," she said. Her daughters were of the same opinion.

In Ill-Health, Lacked Money

Police nor neighbors had any knowledge of relatives. No one this morning knew where the Smiths came from before they moved into the Oak Bay house. They are believed to be old-age pensioners. Neighbors said that both had been in ill health and were without money to subsist on.

Mrs. Dash told how her husband had helped Mr. Smith after he had collapsed from a heart attack recently.

Britain Protests Bombing Of Ship By Chinese Plane

LONDON (AP)—Britain today announced a protest had been lodged with the Chinese Nationalist government at Canton over an air attack on the British freighter Anchises at Communist-held Shanghai.

A Foreign Office spokesman said the owners of the ship, Alfred Holt and Company Ltd., received a cable from Hongkong saying the ship was machine-gunned and bombed as it entered Shanghai. The message listed four casualties.

The spokesman said Britain reserved the right to claim compensation.

By FRED HAMPSON SHANGHAI (AP)—Chinese Nationalist planes today damaged the British freighter Anchises, injuring four members of her crew.

The Anchises was hit about 8 a.m. local time, just after she had turned from the Yangtze into the Whangpoo River.

Capt. J. E. Watson said a bomb struck her first. Then a plane strafed the ship.

Watson said there was no question in his mind that the attack was directed at the ship. He said the British flag was plainly visible.

Most seriously injured among her crew was deck boy T. Edwards, hurt in the bomb blast. Fourth Officer T. D. Mothersill Jr., Electrician McPhail and Seaman J. Hamilton were less seriously injured.

Big Four Wind Up As Red Objections Finally Met

PARIS (AP)—The Big Four Foreign Ministers ended four weeks' debate Monday night with a pledge for east-west peace in Germany and general agreement on an Austrian independence treaty.

As the conference closed, the following results were announced:

1. A six-point statement of principles to guide negotiations in Germany. This featured a Russian promise not to reimpose a blockade of Berlin, in return for efforts to revive east-west trade in the former Reich.

2. A joint communique announcing a series of agreements on the outstanding issues in the Austrian treaty and instructing the deputies to wrap up the document by Sept. 1.

3. Agreement among the four ministers to maintain contact and hold another meeting in New York next fall during the United Nations' General Assembly sessions.

CONFIDENCE VOICED

An American deputy, Samuel Reber, told reporters he is confident the four powers will agree on an Austrian text in time for the fall sessions, when it presumably will be adopted and the Allies will pull their forces out of Austria.

The way toward Austrian agreement was cleared after the west had met a $150,000,000 Soviet claim on Austria for German assets, and Russia had dropped her support of Yugoslav claims on Austria.

On Germany the four countries were less definite. They acknowledged they had failed to unify the country politically and economically, but promised to try to do better in the future.

They pledged themselves not only to encourage international trade and commerce in Germany but also to facilitate the movement of persons and information.

They agreed, according to Robert Schuman, French Foreign Minister, to respect each other's political set-ups, even though they do not agree with them.

The conference had a hectic ending when Russia sought unsuccessfully to make a last-minute change in the Big Four communique.

As Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin of Britain and Dean Acheson, United States Secretary of State, prepared to leave for their home capitals, word came that Russia's Andrei Vishinsky wanted the communique held up and a new meeting called.

It seemed Vishinsky had been reprimanded by Moscow for one point on the Austrian treaty, regarding oil profits.

After a hurried session at the French Foreign Office, it was decided to take up the point through diplomatic channels and the ministers left.

Brilliant Mardigras Ballet Feature Of Stars Of '49

A huge, parrot, brilliantly plumed, set the carnival mood for a gay mardigras number danced by 50 youngsters which drew rounds of applause from the packed audience attending Stars of '49, the 22nd annual dance revue presented by Florence Clough and sponsored by the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E., in the Royal Theatre Monday evening.

Delight and applause also came from the performances of more than 75 tiny tots in "Miss Mary Meets Ferdinand the Bull." Diana Roskelley was the quaint Miss Mary, and a soulful-eyed Ferdinand was comically played by Audrey Latham, and Judy Mason; elves were Patsy Elder and Sharon Kirk.

The tiny ones as fairies and bunnies were earnest and intent and many danced with all the assurance of veteran performers. "Wandering Bunnies" was tiny Alecia Tubman.

"The Dead End Kids Have a Back Yard Concert" presented opportunity for several comic ballets performed by the young lads and lassies in black face and "just off the farm" apparel. Solos were given by Sergeitte Baines, Noreen Clarkson, and Gary Smele, whose rendition of "Mammy" drew chuckles and applause.

"Clair De Lune," a ballet as beautiful as the melody, included Judy Mason, Audrey Latham, Diane Roskelley, Barbara Graves, Patsy Cameron, Doreen Pearson, Marie Merriman.

Opera Company assisted vocally with "Valse Brillant," which featured dancers Audrey Latham, Barbara Barrick, Judy Mason, Glenna Pipes, Patsy Cameron, Diane Roskelley, Marie Merriman, Brenda Myren, Barbara Williams, Norah Rushworth, Shirley Woodward, Jessy Keane, Barbara Graves, Lucy Tomezyk, Doreen Bull, Kay Gregson, Ilace Roskelley and Pauline Lee.

Outstanding was the "pas de deux" performed by Doreen Bull and Ron Purcell, and taps and stairs featured youngsters in a colorful precision tap routine.

Among diversissements were Alfred Petersen's Cossack Dance, executed with agility; Alecia Tubman, rivaling a rubber ball in her "rolling around" number; and sister team Mahinda and Gurbutchin Khor Sangha, clever tap routine. Cinderella Trio with Lucy Tomezyk as Cinderella, Judy Mason, the prince, and the Fairy Queen, Audrey Latham, fashioned a charming ballet. Acrobatic specialty dancers, Frances Merriman, Shirley Pearson, Betty-Mae King, were outstanding.

Dances and costumes were arranged by Florence Clough, and Reg. Bullock was in charge of the mood-setting scenery. Orchestra was under the direction of Reginald Wood.

THE NEW MILLION DOLLAR TRAIN..... WITH THE MILLION DOLLAR VIEW

Shasta Daylight

TO SAN FRANCISCO $16<sup>58</sup>

FROM SEATTLE

STARTING SUNDAY, JULY 10. Southern Pacific is happy to announce that America's newest and most beautiful streamlined train makes its "maiden voyage" to San Francisco on Sunday, July 10, leaving Portland at 7:45 a.m. (PST) and arriving in San Francisco that evening. Simultaneously, the popular Daylight fares will be extended to Portland—a new, luxury train at a new, low fare.

Running time of the Shasta Daylight will be 15½ hours—fastest in history between Portland and San Francisco.

The Shasta Daylight is brand new from stem to stern. Its luxurious appointments benefit from everything we've learned in a dozen years of designing and operating streamlined trains. Perhaps more than any other train, it is custom-built for the route it serves.

Each Shasta Daylight consists of 9 chair cars, diner, coffee shop car, tavern car and parlor-observation car built by Pullman-Standard Car Manufacturing Company. Diesel-electric locomotive. The two trains necessary for daily service cost nearly $5,000,000.

See the dramatic Shasta Route by daylight—the verdant Willamette River Valley, the high, tree-clad Cascade Mountains, Odell and Klamath Lakes, Mt. Shasta, the Sacramento River Canyon, Shasta Dam's Lake and Pit River Bridge and Lassen Peak.

Both Sides Cheer Big 4 As Settlement Announced

LONDON (AP)—The Big Four Foreign Ministers' Paris conference was hailed today from both sides of the Iron Curtain as a step toward better east-west relations.

Moscow's Communist Party organ, Pravda, carried a long review of the talks. The Soviet paper worked in a few jabs at "American businessmen" and other pet targets, but generally concluded that the conference aided in "easing" the international atmosphere.

"The real significance of the agreement which has been reached," Pravda said, "is that it demonstrates conclusively how agreements are possible when the practice of dictatorship is left at the threshold of the council's chamber."

The paper said it is significant that the Paris agreement denotes "an essential step in the direction of re-establishing the activity of the Council of Foreign Ministers."

BEVIN'S OPINION

Foreign Secretary Bevin voiced optimism over the results of the talks and said they "open up the possibilities of co-operation once again." He told reporters on his return to London that the Foreign Ministers had managed to "lay the foundation and now we must proceed to build on it."

"I have faith in our neighbors and I hope they have faith in us," he said.

Austrians received with jubilation news of the Big Four decision to conclude an independence treaty for their country. Chancellor Leopold Figl said in Vienna that the Paris decision is "a big step toward peace and the freedom of humanity."

American officials in Berlin voiced belief the Big Four decisions on the German questions might help untangle the chaos in the former Reich capital.

West German officials themselves were wary in their reaction to the possibility of all-German conferences between east and west.

REDS FLYING HOME

BERLIN (Reuters)—Four Soviet aircraft, believed to be carrying Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister, and his party from the Paris Big Four talks to Moscow, landed today at Daligow Airport in the Russian zone outside Berlin.

The party was expected to proceed to Moscow later.

One source said Vishinsky, while in Berlin, would confer with Ambassador V. S. Semenov, the Soviet political adviser.

DISASTER DAY EXERCISE—Victoria's 136 amateur radio operators joined forces Sunday to provide the city with emergency communication facilities just as they would in time of actual emergency. The test here was part of a continental exercise sponsored by the American Radio Relay League. Both mobile and base stations were put into operation here. Radio operators shown at the base station set up in Red Cross House, 1046 Fort Street, are, left to right, Stephen M. Jones, Roy V. Parrett and Allan Pratt.

'Colonial Month' Opens in Britain; King Gives Talk

LONDON (CP)—The King drove today through flag-decked London streets to Church House in Westminster to declare open Britain's "Colonial Month."

Showing no signs of the leg ailment which first affected him last autumn, His Majesty delivered a 20-minute address standing at a lectern. Later he stood to receive about 50 citizens from various colonies, presented by Colonial Secretary Arthur Creech Jones.

Colonial month is being staged by the Colonial Office with co-operation from various British societies and merchants, with the idea of increasing the British public's knowledge of the vast colonial empire.

The King, dressed in morning clothes with a jaunty red flower in his lapel, spoke of the work of men who through long generations had built up the colonies. He said he was confident that their work would continue and that colonial peoples would draw increasing benefits from their British connections.

The Queen, wearing a smoky-grey dress and a matching hat, accompanied His Majesty.

Among those presented to the King and Queen were Arthur Wint, Olympic runner from Jamaica; Leary Constantine of the West Indies, a famous test cricket player, and His Highness Raja Idris, Raja Muda of Perak.

Spectacular Fire In Winkler, Man.

WINKLER, Man. (CP)—Damage is estimated at $60,000 in a three-hour fire Monday night that destroyed the two-story wooden Winkler Co-operative Service, largest store in this town 75 miles southwest of Winnipeg.

Quick response by fire crews from three neighboring towns and the co-operation of Winkler residents saved the adjoining block of business establishments from the fire, believed started by defective wiring.

More than 3,000 persons were attracted to the blaze, which at its peak flamed 100 feet in the air and was visible for more than 15 miles.

Six 45-gallon drums of kerosene, oil and turpentine in the store fed the blaze, while a total of 5,000 rounds of ammunition went off with machine-gun rapidity as the fire roared uncontrolled. No one was injured.

Residents recalled that only last February fire destroyed seven business premises on the opposite side of the street.

Late MARCEL RAINVILLE

Former Top-Ranking Canadian Davis Cup Star Found Drowned

MONTREAL (CP)—A body taken from Montreal Harbor this morning has been positively identified as that of Marcel Rainville, former Canadian Davis Cup tennis star, city morgue officials said today.

A morgue official said a number of persons who knew the Montreal lawyer and athlete had identified the body, which was found by a tugboat crew.

Morgue officials said the wrists were slashed. No date was set immediately for an inquest.

The body was discovered near Victoria Pier, where bystanders Friday night found a pile of clothing and a sheet of paper with the name "Marcel Rainville" scribbled on it.

Police at that time said there had been no report of Rainville as missing and they were unable to confirm whether the clothing belonged to him.

Rainville, in his early 40's, had been living in various Montreal hotels recently and police were unable to reach his wife.

He was a law graduate of the University of Montreal, where he first starred as a tennis player.

Rainville, so small he was known as "Pee-Wee," ranked at the top of Canada's tennis players between 1932 and 1936. Perhaps his greatest effort for Canadian tennis was in the 1931 Davis Cup matches at Montreal, when he won his match—a long-drawn-out, gruelling affair—with the United States star, Sidney Wood.

Rainville came to the B.C. coast in the early 30's to play in the Canadian championships at Vancouver.

Tension In Czechoslovakia Church, State Row Mounting

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP)—Church-state tension mounted today as the Communist government was reported seizing Roman Catholic opponents in Moravia.

Churchmen reported numerous clergy and prominent laymen arrested in that province, southeast of Prague near the Austrian and Hungarian border junction.

One source reported, without confirmation, that Archbishop Joseph Matocha of Olomouc, second city of Moravia, had been placed under a police watch like that maintained for the last five days over Archbishop Joseph Beran of Prague.

Reports of the arrests followed a hectic week-end during which a pastoral letter from Archbishop Beran was read in churches throughout the country. It denounced the separatist Catholic Action group sponsored by the government. The archbishop's sermon in Prague was broken up by Communist heckling.

The Moravian arrests were made, church sources said, to crack resistance of loyal Roman Catholics to the separatist group. The Vatican, meanwhile, denounced the group as "schismatic, anti-Catholic, a Communist tool and in opposition to the episcopate."

The Supreme Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office said voluntary membership in the organization would automatically bring excommunication to those joining. It further pronounced the excommunication of "the authors and promoters of it."

By implication this affects President Klement Gottwald and other official sponsors.

Excommunication denies the sacraments and the companionships of Roman Catholics to the person so banned.

Names Copied From Gravestones

Church circles here denied the government's claim of widespread support for its new movement. They said the government listed as supporters priests and laymen who had signed only through force and that other names were "copied off gravestones."

Archbishop Beran, who has led the church's fight in Czechoslovakia, spent Monday in seclusion in his Prague palace.

Rumors that he was under formal arrest could not be confirmed, but security police had cut him off from any communication with the outside world either by telephone or personal visits.

The guard was believed to have been tightened because the archbishop was able to smuggle out last Saturday a pastoral letter which his priests read at Sunday masses. The letter declared he would never sign an agreement with a government which subjugated the church to an anti-Christian ideology.

Western Observers Say Austria Never To Go Red Willingly

By G. K. HODENFIELD

VIENNA (AP)—Western observers and diplomats here are convinced Austria will never go Communist without active interference by Russia.

Should the Paris agreement, announced Monday, result in a treaty of independence for Austria, they firmly believe this country would stay outside the Iron Curtain.

There are many reasons why Communism has been a losing cause in Austria.

First, the country is primarily Roman Catholic; secondly, Russian troops came to Austria as conquerors, not liberators. Their arrival in Vienna touched off a wave of looting, raping and acts of violence whose memory lingers.

Austria has been occupied for the last four years. During that time the West has brought in huge shipments of gifts and grants to keep the country alive.

U.S. Slayer Jailed '80 Years To Life'

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—Joe Sam Walker, 33, was sentenced Monday to serve 80 years to life in prison for the "violent, vicious, atrocious" murder of Theresa Foster, Colorado University co-ed.

Judge George H. Bradfield said "the punishment should fit the crime." Walker was visibly shaken by the stiff penalty. If he earned time off for good behavior, Walker could serve the sentence in 40 years.

COMPETITION is essential to GOOD BANKING...

All banks are governed by strict legislation in the public and national interest but competition between banks remains free and unhampered. This is as it should be and to a great extent it is the foundation of Canada's success as a great trading nation. How different the picture might be if all banking was under one political governing body. Gone would be the flexibility and the quality of the services built by competition.

Important among these services are business and personal loans.

Among the determining factors in granting bank credit, under competitive banking, are that the purpose of the loan be a worthy one, that it will further the welfare of the borrower and be profitable to the bank.

The Bank of Toronto offers all banking services to clients large and small.

THE LAST LAP

NEXT MONDAY THE ELECTORS OF the ten provinces of Canada will go to the polls to decide whether Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent or Mr. George Drew shall be in charge of this nation's affairs in the crucial years ahead. The policies for which the present Prime Minister stands are clear and understandable; they are policies which form part and parcel of an operative formula which has proved its worth, which has been highly acceptable to the Canadian people as a whole, and which will continue to expand. So far as we have been able to detect from radio pronouncements, display-advertising, and the parrot-like appeal of Progressive Conservative speakers from the Pacific to the Atlantic, the distillate of the former Premier of Ontario's appeal for votes is his and his party's assertion that "it is time for a change."

It should be fairly safe to assume that no considerable number of Canadians will be taken in by this threadbare theme. Admittedly, the Conservative Party under the leadership of Mr. Bennett used it in 1930 and, for reasons best known to the voters who chose to reject Mr. Mackenzie King at the election of that year, the majority thought it a good idea. Apparently to many it meant nothing that Canada's external trade at that stage was worth some $2,600,000,000 dollars—a state of economic well-being which should have been a guiding light for appropriate action at the polls. They were not to know, of course, that three years later the national ledger would reveal a trading account for this country with the rest of the world standing at approximately $900,000,000—or, in other words, $100,000,000 less than it was in 1913, when the Dominion's population was about 8,250,000.

In these columns over the years we have alluded to the importance of Canada's external trade, its relationship to employment, its relationship to the standard of living of which Canadians have every right to be proud, and its relationship to this country's status among the great exporting nations of the world. But, for another extraordinary reason, worshippers at the shrine of Toryism still prefer fiscal generalities to business realities. They would have us believe, for example, that Canada's economic future is largely dependent upon her exchange of goods with the United Kingdom. Well and good; but spokesmen for Mr. Drew seem to forget that it was none other than the then leader of the Conservative Party who announced that he intended to "blast" his way into the markets of the world.

Just one glance at the figures we have quoted in respect of this country's external trade in 1930 and 1933 would seem to supply the commentary on this type of argument. Mr. Bennett, the sponsor of the nonsensical Imperial Economic Conference of 1932—implying, as a case in point, that Great Britain could exist economically largely on the exchange of goods she could arrange with the other members of the British Commonwealth of Nations—not only failed in his fancy idea of blasting his way into the markets of the world, but, tragically for Canada, did an almost complete job of blasting the Dominion's way out of the markets of the world.

Apart from the indisputable fact that Great Britain never could hope to survive economically if she had to depend for her business only upon the Commonwealth, and notwithstanding the additional fact that the Tory Party seems to think it next door to economic sin to trade with the United States, what are Canadians going to do to help to bridge the gulf between their sales and their purchases from the United Kingdom? And from the time in 1897, when that great Liberal, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, without "strings" of any kind—substantially cut the duties on British goods entering Canada, the followers of the present leader of the Progressive Conservative Party have dodged a vital issue. Not an idea has come from them that might be translated into terms of how to adjust the sales of three dollars' worth of goods to the United Kingdom in return for purchases of one dollar. We do not propose to enter into the current argument—a product of the post-Second World War's economy—which Mr. Drew documents as the convertibility of the pound sterling and the dollar. But it is obvious that unless and until official spokesmen for this country, the United States, and the United Kingdom sit down at a table and discuss this highly-technical matter it will not be possible for the leader of the Progressive Conservative Party of Canada to speak authoritatively on the subject. He knows that, too, but it does not suit his political purpose to admit it.

Finally, then, when Mr. Drew and his spokesmen from coast to coast tell the Canadian people that "it is time for a change" and that nothing the King and St. Laurent governments have done is worth consideration, why is it they do not explain to the electorate just what a government at Ottawa presided over by the former Premier of Ontario—defeated in his own riding at the last general election in that province—would do to justify this silly thesis? No wonder the intelligent citizens of Canada are suggesting to themselves that a man appealing for their support must be hard up for argument when he continually refigures the Battle of Hongkong and goes up in the air about Canadian aircraft.

PATIENCE HAS A LIMIT

THE DIFFICULTIES INVOLVED IN ATTEMPTS to reach agreement with Soviet Russia are such as to try the patience and the temper of the most experienced diplomat. Delays, denials, bitter last-ditch minority stands, hours of propaganda and diatribe—all these have marked the meetings held from time to time by the western democracies and the U.S.S.R. Consequently when it appeared that the month-long conference of Foreign Ministers in Paris had arrived at a settlement—even if only temporary—of the Berlin question, and agreement on the principles governing an Austrian peace treaty, there was a general feeling of relief that something concrete had at last been accomplished. That feeling was short lived. No sooner had the news of the conference adjournment been relayed around the world by the press associations than Mr. Andrei Vishinsky, the Soviet representative, demanded an amendment of the plans which had won support. Another meeting of the Foreign Ministers was thereupon called, and, in the face of western unanimity, the Russian objection was withdrawn.

Such diplomatic behaviour adds little to the peace of mind of the people of the world. The stakes—embracing as they do the welfare of all the human race—are too high for such irresponsible tactics as Russia has used in this case. Almost the same thing happened on a previous occasion last year when western diplomats labored day and night in Moscow to reach agreement with the Kremlin on lifting the blockade of Berlin. With full accord apparently won, the western representatives left the Soviet capital, only to find their work completely negated by a Russian official acting on a "technicality" in Berlin.

It was fortunate that the extra meeting in Paris could remove the fresh difficulties that Russia imposed. It would certainly not be the fault of British, French, and American delegates if this had not been achieved. But the question arises as to how long the West can be expected to meet with patience the intransigence of Russia. And even when agreements are completed, must we execute them under the constant anxiety that they may be summarily broken by Soviet action? That some firmer basis of international understanding is needed is obvious. Surely the men in the Kremlin must be able to see it.

QUICK ACTION EXPECTED

AS THEY PREPARED FOR THEIR regular meeting this afternoon, it is safe to say that City Council members gave full consideration to the condition of the waters off Victoria's two main bathing beaches. It should be safe to say, moreover, that each member has decided that corrective action should be taken without loss of time. Investigations by the engineering department have been proceeding since the degree of pollution that exists was brought to public attention last week.

On the advice they receive from engineering experts, the mayor and aldermen are expected to determine the methods to be used in overcoming the difficulty. Early discussions indicate a system of settlement tanks may be the answer. But whatever arrangement is favored, delay in starting the undertaking should not be countenanced. Of course the job will cost money. A figure of $20,000 is reportedly a conservative estimate. But it happens that the City Council, in its budgetary provisions for the year, invariably includes in expenditure estimates a special vote for contingencies. The pollution of the beaches is an emergency. Whatever hopes the council members may have entertained that a surplus may be available from that fund at the end of the year, they should prepare to abandon them now unless some residue is left over from the costs of making the improvement required in sewage disposal.

Another financial point is worthy of note. The city allocates a substantial sum each year to the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau to assist it in its work of attracting tourists. What value can the city get from the dollar it spends for this purpose if our visitors are confronted with signs on the best city beaches that the waters are contaminated to the point of danger?

We are not presuming to tell the mayor and council what to do. They are fully alive to the situation. Any who may have been inclined to discount its seriousness will have had their impressions corrected by Ald. J. D. Hunter, energetic and imaginative chairman of the public works committee—sponsor of the new garbage crusher to keep the beaches clean—and a former chairman of the health committee, who has no inclination to temporize on issues prejudicial to the physical well-being of our people. The only point we wish to make is that there is an urgent job to be done and no time should be lost in doing it.

NOTES

Life is like that. Folks who don't have to eat and cook out-of-doors think it fun to do so.

You don't hear much nowadays of the still small voice. Most voices are on the networks or using amplifiers.

Matter Of Fact

By JOSEPH ALSOP from Washington.

NON-PRECESSABLE GYROSCOPE

HISTORY HAS A joking way of forgetting the events that make a big noise—the loud investigations, the shabby political intrigues, the empty conferences—and remembering the events that are quiet, unnoticed, even mysterious, in the eyes of contemporaries. It is these latter, very often, which are found to be truly significant by the tests of time and of results.

If you want to play the game of locating such unnoticed yet great events in our own period, you might bet on the invention of the non-precessable gyroscope. This little instrument has recently been perfected by Charles Stark Draper, professor of aeronautical engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

IN ORDER to understand what the new gyroscope is and means, one must begin with the problem of guided missiles. All military authorities agree that the primitive German missiles of the Second World War—the V-1 and the V-2—were the precursors of a vast and vital military development. An immense slice of the total American appropriation for military research and development is going into work on guided missiles.

But the first obstacle to building a good guided missile is the need to find a way of guiding these hideous creatures of man's imagination with dependable accuracy. And the first problem that must be solved, before missiles can be accurately guided, is the problem of stability.

THERE ARE ALL KINDS of guidance systems. In theory, a rocket can even be built to navigate, by automatic computer, by the light of the stars. But all these guidance systems will be useless unless the missile itself has built-in stability. In other words, it must not deviate from its natural course except when its guidance system gives it the order.

Stability is built into all missiles by gyroscopes, which gauge any mistaken tendency to soar or slip or veer, and correct the missile's error electronically. But gyroscopes themselves have always, hitherto, been subject to error. Friction in their bearings, gradually alters their settings. Thus the very commands that these guardians give their missiles begin to be seriously incorrect. This phenomenon, of the gyroscopes getting out of whack, is known as gyroscopic precession.

PROFESSOR DRAPER'S new gyroscope is not absolutely free of precession. It is simply sufficiently accurate so that it may be depended upon for a considerable period by the lightening-like standards of the guided missile experiments. In short, it will keep a missile stable for the few minutes needed to complete an inter-continental trajectory, which is after all enough.

How this has been accomplished is not precisely known. But it is thought probable that Draper has turned the trick by incredibly accurate machining.

For friction cannot occur when the two surfaces in contact are perfectly smooth.

IF THE HARD STEEL and agate of a bearing are machined and polished until no single molecule protrudes beyond its neighbors, then friction is eliminated for practical purposes. By this kind of polishing, which has been used on the lenses of the big California telescopes, Draper could have made his almost frictionless bearing and his non-precessable gyroscope.

The experts thought that this crucial development might be as much as ten years away, even a year or so ago. Another, related event may also be recorded. The Navy's scientific experimenters have successfully put into the air an 18-inch ramjet. There is no space here to explain this strange contraption, which is essentially a stovepipe with a fire inside it, rushing through the air at immense speed. It is enough to say that the ramjet is thought the most promising of the different jet types for use as a guided missile, and that an 18-inch ramjet is big enough to seek out and strike down the very largest attacking bomber.

AGAIN, THE PRODUCTION of a ramjet that would be effective as an interception missile was expected to take several years. Instead, there has been another great, unforeseen jump forward.

Both Professor Draper's non-precessable gyroscope and the Navy's 18-inch ramjet, are most emphatically in the early experimental stage as yet. In combination, however, they already hold out the possibility of another radical shift of advantage, from the attacker in the air to the defender in the air. And the Draper gyroscope alone holds out the further possibility of subsequent reversal of this shift, from defender to attacker, when long-range guided missiles are finally perfected.

THERE ARE YEARS to wait, no doubt, but it is already clear that we must be prepared for this sort of development in the future. And it is also clear that Americans are not preparing themselves very adequately by howling about "subversives" at home and ignoring the grim realities of the world situation abroad.

Democracy is the most exacting and difficult of all forms of government, because its success depends, not on servile obedience of the many to the few, but on the active participation of the citizens in government, and the readiness to take responsibility.—British Prime Minister Clement Attlee.

As Our Readers See It

TRUTH AND FICTION

During an election, and before and during a war, critical periods in the life of a nation, the truth stream dries up and all is fair so long as the objective is attained. This must be corrected.

The United States has recognized this danger to world peace. A study of wars, once sanity is again restored, has shown that a true picture of the controversy was not presented to the people. A drafting sub-committee of 11 members has been appointed by the United States under the title: "Convention on International Transmission of News and Right of Correction" to deal with this. Ink is cheaper than "blood, sweat and tears!"

Is it not time for some thought to be given whereby the flow of propaganda during elections can be kept within the truth channel?

A MOVING PICTURE

May I use your column in which to draw a picture?—June 18, Dominion Theatre. Were you there to experience rather than see and hear a handful of our chosen representatives through the years?

No successive political meeting will surpass its inspirational level; 'twas as if Dr. John M. Ewing held up a torch which threw into relief a picture which could be captioned "Simplicity Through Truth." Within its frame were grouped Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe and Hon. Bob Mayhew, flanked by two great men, for ever synonymous with British Columbia—Thomas Dufferin Pattullo and John Hart.

From the moment that Mr. Pattullo rose to ensure Bob's voice reaching us, through the mike, to the regretful close as John Hart gathered us for "The King," there existed a unique atmosphere of prevailing good—through which Bob Mayhew and C. D. Howe stood foursquare. It was truly a moving picture we went to see.

RIGHT—THIS IS B.C.

It was announced over CBR, Vancouver, this morning (June 17) that Mr. James Sinclair, federal member for Vancouver North, had stated that the Liberals in British Columbia had won a clear majority over, all without assistance from the Conservatives and that if the Conservatives did not now "toe the line" there would be no more Coalition.

If the statement attributed to Mr. Sinclair is correct, it is difficult to imagine a more stupid, dangerous utterance.

Surely the most biased party politician must have the common sense to know that when the people of B.C. voted to return the present government to power by such a splendid majority, they were voting not for Liberal or Conservative candidates but for a Coalition—to keep in power a sound business "team administration" as a solid bulwark against communism and socialism.

Statements such as the one Mr. Sinclair is alleged to have made, can cause nothing but ill-feeling and do incalculable harm.

IRRESPONSIBLE DREW

If the Canadian people want a front seat watching the destruction of their country, then let them put the Tory Party in power at Ottawa, led by Drew.

The most irresponsible character ever to seek the office of Prime Minister. He is promising everything under the sun to gain power. A shining example of government by Drew is the trail of destruction he left in Ontario from hydro to the highest taxation in history. Never was there a leader in Canada with so many masters. Should the Tory Party come to power at Ottawa, the government would be led by Drew but operated by Duplessis, the dictator in Quebec, and the reactionary element from that province—plus a millionaire publisher in Toronto, who sponsored Drew in his present position, and by a millionaire mine owner and the money barons of Bay Street, Toronto.

If the Canadian people want to be the slaves of these fellows, if they want the iron heel of dictatorship and regimentation, and if they want the end of the American market—Canada's lifeblood today—and if they want to go back to the dark age of the last Tory rule from 1930 to 35, then let them put Drew and reactionary Toryism in power at Ottawa.

Pact Approval Shows The Trend

By BRUCE BLOSSAT, From Washington

NO BURST of cheers greeted the recent unanimous approval of the North Atlantic Treaty by the United States Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The event generally was accepted happily but quietly.

The truth is, approval by this group and the Senate itself has been taken for granted from the start.

STARTLING REACTION

Viewed in a broad setting, this reaction is startling. Who would have guessed in 1940, when the isolationist debates were raging, that today the United States would take on heavy peacetime foreign commitments almost nonchalantly?

Here is the U.S. preparing to enter a tight military defence pact with 11 other nations of the "Atlantic community." Never before in its history has a security effort of this magnitude even been seriously broached. It stands as a towering milestone in American foreign policy.

And yet, now that this is being done, it seems almost anticlimactic. How could this happen?

We venture that this apparent popular indifference means above all that people long since have endorsed the idea of working with other countries to preserve peace.

The United Nations charter won U.S. ratification in quick order. World War II, with the atom bomb, guided missiles and long-range planes, sent the shrunken regiments of isolationism scattering.

OPEN SABOTAGE

Russia's open sabotage of the U.N., coupled with her aggressive designs on Europe, compelled the western nations to fall back upon less sweeping regional machinery to help avert war.

The American people appear to have accepted the notion that this treaty embraces the same principle of collective security that they agreed to in the U.N. charter.

Of course, the government, large segments of the press and other agencies helped to educate people to endorsement of the pact. All these got a boost from Russia's stubborn refusal to work co-operatively for peace and recovery. But the real groundwork was already laid.

In hearings on the treaty, Senators Watkins and Donnell deplored what they felt was popular apathy. They charged that the committee had prejudiced the issue and was not eager to hear opposition.

Their effort to rally opponents collapsed in dismal failure. Either the real protesting forces are too small or they are afraid to speak out openly.

For they probably realize, as did the committee, that the prevailing mood of the people is to make their strength felt in unity with other like-minded nations.

Reinforced by that popular temper, the Senate committee has given America's friends and possible enemies thumping proof that the United States intends to stand firm against aggression.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

THE month-old Big Four Foreign Ministers' council meeting in Paris has ground to a weary close, having recorded some achievement although it has done little to make the halls of the pink palace echo with satisfaction.

Small wonder that a United States spokesman wasn't optimistic in evaluating the results. One of the conference's chief accomplishments has been to emphasize again the conflict between the two blocs—western democracy and totalitarian Bolshevism. It's difficult to find common ground on vital issues.

The principal object of the conference—to establish economic and political unity for Germany—hasn't got far. The best that could be done by the four statesmen—Vishinsky of Russia, Bevin of Britain, Schuman of France and Acheson of the United States—was to agree on a "modus vivendi" under which dismembered Germany will continue to be administered by the opposing blocs.

Under this agreement the Big Four would reopen and encourage trade between east and west Germany. The Russians promise not to impose blockade conditions on Berlin again.

WILL IT WORK?

At face value that looks good, but its real value depends on whether it can be made to work. The establishment of political and economic unity of Germany is essential to the rehabilitation and peace of Europe. However, this very importance of the Reich has made it the object of a tug-of-war between West and East. There is no guarantee that this tug-of-war will cease.

The council announced agreement in principle on an Austrian independence treaty.

The council agreed that Austria's frontiers will remain what they were Jan. 1, 1938, which means that Yugoslavia's claim has been thrown out. Russia is expected to withdraw her support to that claim. Yugoslavia won't get reparations but may "seize, retain or liquidate Austrian property" in Yugoslav territory. Austria will pay Russia $150,000,000 in reparations.

NO BIG GAINS

That's what has been agreed to in principle. It remains to be seen whether it will be what ultimately is signed.

VICTIMIZED

London (Ont.) Free Press
Modern man is the victim of his own inventive genius. In a machine age he tends to be consumed by mass and power. He is apt to tumble into the vortex of his own swirling devices. And if this develops, he is in the very real danger of being separated from certain of his personal rights and privileges, and, also of losing the stimulating pleasure of his duties and obligations in a free country.

NEW PATRON

Winnipeg Free Press
The arts have now a new patron, from a quarter whence such devotion might be least expected.

At its recent annual meeting in New York the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association voted to establish two $2,000 scholarships to permit young Canadians to study music, painting or drama overseas or in the United States.

Those loud reverberations that the delegates heard when this decision was reached were the echoes of the jaws of rough, tough hockey players falling open all the way from Halifax to Victoria.

VITAL STATISTICS

Financial Post
Of approximately 12.9 million consumers in Canada today:

Seventy-three per cent or 9.5 million had no adult experience in World War I (had not attained age 18 by 1918)

Sixty per cent or 7.7 million had no adult experience with the 1929 crisis (had not attained age 18 in 1929)

Fifty-one per cent or 6.5 million have had no adult experience with other than a Liberal administration (had not attained age 18 in 1935)

Forty-four per cent or 5.7 million have not had any adult experience with a peacetime economy (under 18 in 1939)

In planning advertising and other public campaigns those "vital" statistics should not be ignored.

Military Efforts Swinging To Defence, Experts Think

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP). — The military pendulum may be swinging back in favor of defensive weapons, some informed military students believe.

As an example, they pointed today to reports that guided rockets are being actively developed for use against one of the main offensive weapons of the Second World War — the strategic bomber.

They also noted progress in the tools of land warfare—the recoilless gun, an improved proximity fuse, better artillery fire direction equipment, improved non-magnetic land mines and better tactical aircraft.

HISTORIC PATTERN

Military leaders say this apparent turn toward the defensive weapon follows the pattern of military history. An offensive weapon is followed by a weapon to counter it—first the arrow, then the armor to stop it, then the armor-piercing slug fired from the primitive matchlock gun.

So far, no one has claimed a means for preventing explosion of an atomic bomb or really diminishing its effect. But the race for a counter-weapon presently is directed at something that will shoot down a bomber before it can carry the A-bomb to the target.

It is for this reason that development of rockets which can seek out and hit bombers is assuming such importance.

Closely tied in with United States development of an improved defensive weapon against air attack is the old question: Does Russia have the atomic bomb?

In 1947 a commission headed by Dr. Karl T. Compton, then president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Board, said:

"For a period estimated by responsible scientists at not less than four years and not more than 10 years, we can expect immunity from such (atomic) attack because we alone possess the atomic bomb."

There has been no positive evidence since then to prove the commission's prediction wrong. There have been rumors of atomic test explosions in remote Asiatic Russia, but they never have been supported by anything like official substantiation.

The incident Sunday was reported to have followed an altercation between rival union members that occurred uptown.

Well-Known Former Athlete, Printer Buried Here

Funeral services were held from McCall's Floral Funeral Chapel Monday afternoon for James Charles McNeill, 2710 Cook Street, one of Victoria's star athletes in his younger days, and former partner in the Acme Press Co.

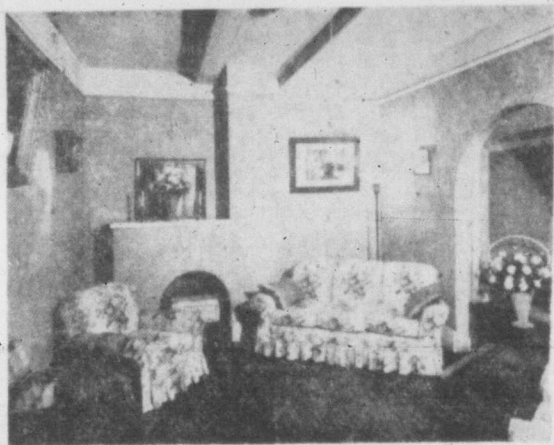

Mr. McNeill rowed with the James Bay Athletic Association and played for the Victoria rugby team in 1897, 1898 and 1899. He was widely-known in printing business circles.

A native of Chesley, Ont., Mr. McNeill came to Victoria 62 years ago. He was a past master of the Vancouver-Quadra Lodge, No. 2, A.F. and A.M. He died Friday at the age of 74.

Rev. W. L. McKay conducted the private funeral. Burial was in the family plot at Royal Oak.

Investment Dealers' Association Hears Bankers From Europe

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

The international note is the dominating one in virtually all Canadian gatherings this month.

First was the Canadian International Trade Fair at Toronto, May 30-June 10, where scores of countries showed their goods.

Then, the annual meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association at St. Andrew's-by-the-Sea, N.B., June 7-9, had an unusually heavy quota of United States speakers.

The 12th biennial congress of the International Chamber of Commerce at Quebec, June 13-17, was, of course, a real world parliament of businessmen.

Now, the annual meeting of the Investment Dealers' Association for Canada at Minaki, Ont., from today until Friday, again recognizes the international scene by having two of its guest speakers from Europe.

They are Alfred Pose of Paris and Pierre Bonovolsin of Brussels, both continental bankers.

The meeting also look at perhaps the most exciting part of the domestic scene by having an address on western oil by C. C. Nickle of Calgary.

What impression does one get out of such gatherings? First, that there is no lack of demand in the world to keep things humming. Second, that upsets caused by the war are forcing countries to do things in immediate self-protection, which are threatening the existence of the trade which needs to be done. Third, that the best thought the world can muster is being brought to bear to find a way out of these handicaps.

ADVANCE THINKING

Now—if one is inclined to take a dim view of things—one might say there is a lot of talking without much being done.

One might say that—but it wouldn't accord with postwar facts. Postwar history has been one of recurring crises for which the answers have been found just in-time.

Application Refused

Application made by Frank Clarkson, city painting contractor, to purchase two lots on Sussex Street, in Esquimalt, for the purpose of constructing a paint manufacturing plant, was turned down by Esquimalt Council Monday night.

The application was refused after Councilor Charles Smith, chairman of the lands committee, reported municipal zoning regulations would not permit such a plant in that locality.

MINISTER OF FISHERIES

The CANDIDATE for GREATER VICTORIA

Mayhew has consistently put the interests of Victoria and its people FIRST, and his actual accomplishments for Victoria are the record of Victoria's progress ever since we first sent him to Ottawa as our representative.

Years of service, experience, and co-operation with other Government leaders have given him a standing and authority that will make his continued representation of Victoria of even greater value than in the past.

Here is a man who, from a small beginning, made an outstanding success of his own business in our own city before representing his fellow Victorians in the Dominion Parliament. R. W. Mayhew is essentially a worker and a doer—he seeks re-election as our member at Ottawa not on promises, but on a record of actual and invaluable achievement.

Everyone in Victoria knows "Bob" Mayhew. His business life, his family life, his man-to-man sincere friendliness with citizens in all walks of life, regardless of party, have endeared him to all Victoria—it has been well said that "everyone believes in Bob Mayhew, everyone trusts him, everyone who knows him LIKES him."

What more can we ask of the man who is to represent us? During his last term of office he was honored with the important portfolio of Minister of Fisheries—and all our Government leaders have expressed the sincere hope that Victoria will be wise enough to return this capable, and altogether sincere man to Ottawa.

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

Esquimalt To Cornwallis Switch Criticized By Gordon Cameron

Criticism of the government for its decision to give basic training for navy recruits at Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, instead of continuing to give such training at Esquimalt, was voiced Monday night by Gordon Cameron, Progressive-Conservative candidate for Victoria in the forthcoming federal election.

Speaking at a rally at Oaklands School, Mr. Cameron said the moving next month of 500 men, many with families, to the recommissioned base, built during the war and one of the largest in the British Empire, would mean a considerable loss to merchants of Esquimalt and Victoria. He said training at Cornwallis was unrestricted only during eight months of the year.

Also referring to Esquimalt, the Victoria lawyer said he was "amazed that the Liberals have not held out, as a bribe to electors, some sort of deal for the taxing-of-tax-free Crown lands in the municipality."

The speaker said his party would, if given a majority, give municipalities some sort of recompense to make up for loss of taxes from Crown lands.

VETERANS' AFFAIRS

In a speech touching briefly on practically all controversial topics of the campaign, Mr. Cameron outlined the policy of the Progressive Conservative party on veterans' affairs. Among the points brought out were the extending of veterans' benefits to all Commonwealth veterans who have resided in Canada for 20 years, onus to be on the doctors to prove a disability was pre-existent in a claim for pension, and equal benefits for merchant marine men as those received by former members of the armed forces.

In answer to questions asked him in a letter, the Progressive-Conservative candidate said he would support old age pensions at age 65 without a means test—even if such a scheme were brought into the House of Commons by another party.

"Any increase in the indemnity paid M.P.'s should be decided upon not while Parliament is in session, but at election time in order that the voters can have something to say about it," Mr. Cameron stated. He added he did not think there should be any such increase at the present time.

Mr. Cameron touched on education, saying that some of the surplus budgeted for by the present government last year and this year should be returned to the provinces for education and the like.

He noted that $200,000,000 had been taken from this province in the form of income taxes, but only $25,000,000 returned.

Abolition of the radio license fee was advocated by the candidate, who termed it a "nuisance tax." He said there was enough being collected by CBC in advertising fees to cover costs and that the radio license was, therefore, unnecessary.

SOCIAL SECURITY PROGRAM

Mrs. David Meredith, speaking in support of Mr. Cameron, outlined the social security program of the Progressive Conservative party.

Major points she mentioned were superannuation allowances to all at age 65, an allowance in event of sickness, a comprehensive medical program, and unemployment insurance which would be payable at all time, not just as long as a person's credits lasted.

She said the party had pledged itself to initiate such a program immediately if it gained power.

Alan Bigelow, law student at the University of Saskatchewan, spoke on the external trade problems of Canada, attributing most of the foreign trade weaknesses and unfavorable balance of trade, of this country in its dealing with the United States directly to the present government.

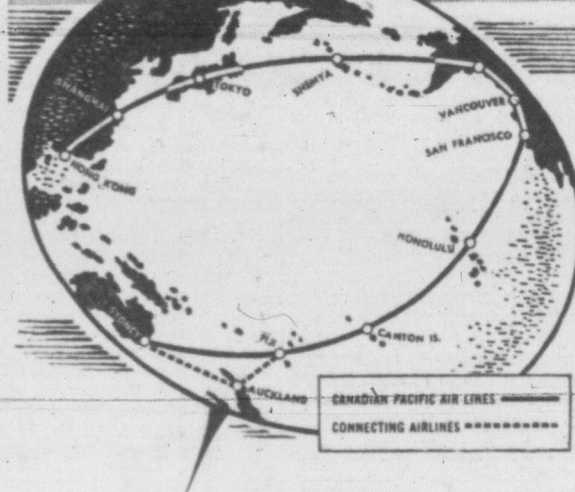

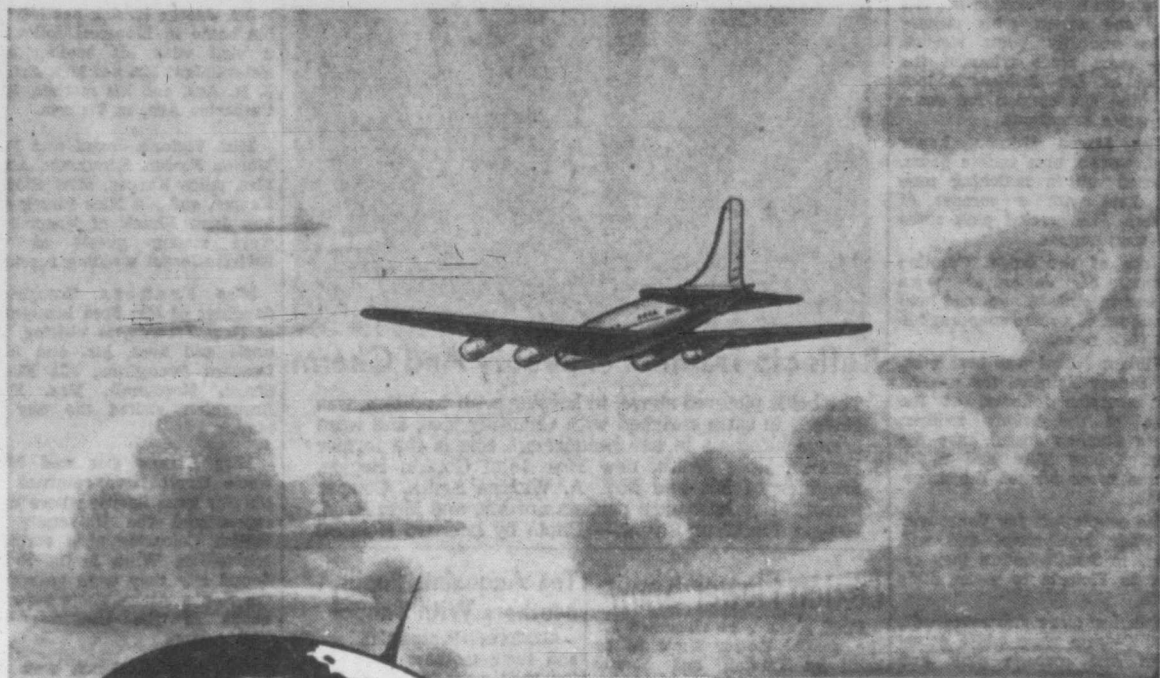

P. C. Payne gave a brief address in support of Mr. Cameron. Chairman of the meeting was Mrs. J. Taylor.

New Housing Scheme

VANCOUVER (CP)—Mayor Charles Thompson of Vancouver said Monday night a new scheme for building low-rental homes may develop out of a conference between the federal, provincial and municipal governments to be called by Ottawa.

The mayor said the scheme involves the Dominion government paying 75 per cent of the cost and the provincial government paying 25 per cent. He hinted it would be a major development to the east of the Fraser river housing project.

HERE'S THE Newest DODGE

THE ALL-METAL
ALL-PURPOSE
SUBURBAN

YOU'LL FIND a wide range of uses for this new ALL-METAL Dodge Suburban.

Open the wide doors and you'll be amazed at the seating capacity, and the space provided for luggage and vacation equipment in this newest Dodge. There's plenty of head, leg and elbow room in both front and rear seats. Its lively 87 h.p. engine operates with traditional Dodge dependability and economy... gives you ample power for hill climbing and heavy going off the beaten track. Low pressure tires, Safety-Rim wheels, luxury springing and powerful hydraulic brakes, assure you a safe, smooth ride.

With the rear seat folded flush with the floor (an easy one-hand operation) the new Dodge Suburban can "double" as a roomy panel delivery vehicle. You can easily load it with any type of merchandise without a worry... its all-metal interior is hard to damage... the long-wearing vinyl-fabric upholstery is safely and easily washable.

Inspect this great new addition to the famous Dodge line at your Dodge-DeSoto dealer's showrooms. You'll find it just the car you've always wanted—at a price you are willing to pay.

The farmer, suburbanite or merchant will find the Suburban ideal for load hauling. With the rear seat folded forward and the tailboard down, there's a carrying space 7 feet 5 inches long and an extreme inside body width of 5 feet. It will do anything a light delivery unit will do—and it's instantly convertible into a six-passenger sedan.

Stephanie Jossul Now Mrs. Kwiram

First United Church was the setting for the marriage, June 17 at 6.30, of Miss Stephanie Frances Jossul, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Jossul, 3661 Saanich Road, and Rudy Ryan Kwiram, son of Mrs. R. Kwiram, of Winnipeg. Rev. Moir A. J. Waters officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Stephen Jossul. Her gown of traditional white satin was yoked in net and lace, and styled with slender bodice and lily point sleeves. Sweetheart roses trimmed the crown of her full-length lace veil, and she carried red roses and white carnations.

Miss Donna Salmon, honor maid, wore a blue taffeta gown. A brief veil in matching tones was held with a coronet of flowers. She carried pink roses and snapdragons.

Niece of the bride, Caroline Kasper, of Vancouver was dressed in pink taffeta, and held a bouquet of mauve snapdragons and pink roses.

William Jossul was best man, and Sidney Salmon, the usher.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother, where Stephen Jossul gave the toast. Yellow lilies and multi-colored roses formed the decorations.

The couple left for Vancouver on their honeymoon and will travel to Seattle before they return to Victoria to make their home.

With her big gabardine suit, Mrs. Kwiram wore white accessories and corsage pink and white carnations.

It's so different today

PIRACY on the High Seas was, no doubt, exciting until it came to breakfast on salt pork and ship's biscuit. Nowadays that delicious cereal, Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes, is eaten joyfully on both sea and land. It's made from not one but TWO grains — sun-ripened wheat and malted barley.

Bold buccaners of today come aboard with zest when Grape-Nuts Flakes are in the office. And a good thing too, because these honey-golden flakes provide nourishment they need — useful quantities of carbohydrates, protein, phosphorus, iron and other food essentials. Say "Ahoy, Mr. Grocer! Grape-Nuts Flakes, please!"

Personal Notes

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Charles A. Banks left Government House last evening en route to the eastern States where they will spend the next three weeks. ## Swiss Visitor Likes Victoria Learns To Speak English Here

MRS. ELSIE ZELLER

"This is so much like my homeland, that I have not been homesick during all of my stay," said Mrs. Elsie Zeller, who will leave Friday for her home in Switzerland.

"I could hardly speak a word of English when I came here last September," she said proudly, "but I am glad I speak so well now."

With a flashing smile, enhanced by a coco brown tan which she acquired while on a visit to California, Mrs. Zeller confided that through the efforts of her relatives, friends and in joining St. Aidan's Church choir in this city, as well as acting as a nurse's aid for a short time at the Royal Jubilee Hospital, she was able to learn the language in a very short time.

A Red Cross nurse after the first World War, Mrs. Zeller described her work at the city hospital as one of her happiest times while here.

"As for singing," added the soprano, "I have always loved it."

Institute Responsible For District's Name

The action, 40 years ago, of a government official, has left its impress permanently on Lake Hill district.

In the Lake Hill Women's Institute minute book of 1909, brought to Monday's institute meeting by Mrs. E. Glover, an entry was found which recorded the detail that the postmaster of the time had accepted the institute recommendation that the local district post office be named "Lake Hill."

In that inaugural year of Lake Hill Institute the president was Mrs. S. F. Tolmie, wife of the man who subsequently became Premier of British Columbia.

These, and a number of other details in the early history of the institute, were read with interest by members at Monday's meeting, when plans were further advanced for the 40th anniversary banquet and program on Sept. 28.

President Mrs. A. S. Moffat and members worked on the exhibition quilt which is being prepared for competitive entry. Mrs. F. R. Sims was named convener of the institute entry in the flower show, June 22 and 23.

Special guests welcomed to the meeting were Mrs. Crammer, of Alert Bay, and her two daughters, Gloria and Frances Crammer.

Badges Awarded—Following a "Fly Up" ceremony which welcomed Brownie Joan Pollard to the Guide Company, when the Third North Guides held their final meeting recently, badges were awarded by District Commissioner Mrs. Rogers to Reta Crossly, Verna Aspray, Daphne Luchinsky, Eleanor Smale and Joan Long. First class badge was presented to Winnie Rasmussen and several Service Stars were also presented to members.

During the evening the company qualified for their hostess, entertainers and Camp Fire Badges, by acting as hostesses to their mothers. The company was highly complimented by Div. Com. Mrs. Rogers on the handling of the affair. In charge of the enrollment ceremony was Div. Com. Mrs. Midgley, Patsy Campbell and Beverly Thomas.

Retiring Regent Honored By Lodge

Senior Regent Ann Bird was honored at a surprise party sponsored by membership chairman, Mrs. Ada Wood, at a meeting of Victoria Chapter, No. 25, Women of the Moose.

Mrs. Bird was presented with two gifts, one from senior officers and the other from the 11 committee chairmen. Tables were garlanded with multi-colored roses; the guest chair decorated and a corsage bouquet of orange blossoms and roses was placed for Mrs. Bird. Refreshments were served on a decorated fruit cake donated by Granny Tibbals and her daughter, Bea Stevens. A class of candidates were initiated by the senior regent as follows: Co-workers Florence Benzie, Marylin Couzellis, Helga Crawford, Mary Shillito and Rose Jones.

An auditing committee was chosen to meet at the home of graduate regent D. Guep, 2538 Fernwood Road, on July 5, with co-worker Peggy Cawsey, chairman; assisted by Thelma Shaw, Alice Sparks and Margaret Jones.

The incoming senior regent Jessie Vashere appointed junior officers as follows: Guide, Molly Bentham; assistant guide, Ada Wood; Argus, Rose Rogers and sentinal, Myra Stevens.

HONORABLE DOUGLAS C. ABBOTT

Before he became Minister of Fisheries, Bob Mayhew was Parliamentary Assistant to Douglas C. Abbott, Minister of Finance. The fact that both men are respectively known as Bob and Doug, instead of Robert and Douglas, gives them something in common. Both are human, easy and approachable. Both have the ability to handle their jobs in an efficient, seemingly casual manner.

The Honorable Douglas C. Abbott is a thin man with an engaging smile and a casual manner of walking and talking. One political writer says: "Most politicians play the role of undertaker when they start to handle financial items. Doug Abbott is a happy resurrectionist and makes the dead live again." Even dry figures and cold statistics become vital when he refers to them.

Like the Honorable Brooke Claxton, Minister of Defence, a lawyer and a Montrealer, Mr. Abbott proved the new strength of the Liberal Party in 1940 when traditionally Conservative St. Antoine - Westmount turned Liberal in its choice. He was one of a hundred new members on Parliament Hill in that year, one of the many new men with new and vigorous ideas for government.

Today, at fifty, his ideas continue to remain vital and vigorous.

Board Hears History Of Book Of Common Prayer

In conjunction with the Anglican communion throughout the world last week celebrating the 400th anniversary of the book of common prayer, Rev. E. Munn, guest speaker at the board meeting of the British Columbia Diocesan Women's Auxiliary in St. Mary's Church, dealt with the history of the prayer book since the first one came out in 1549.

He showed how that first prayer book differed from the ones now in use in the Anglican Church in Canada, traced the changes that had taken place across the centuries and then pointed out that there was now a tendency to return to certain forms of service laid down in that first book.

Diocesan president, Mrs. R. O. Taylor, was in the chair and welcomed two visitors, Miss Pierce, Calgary, and Miss Barbara Gardner, Bourne-mouth, Eng. Mrs. J. R. Hallam took opening prayers and Mrs. W. A. Libby, Bible reading. Mrs. A. V. Collison, president, St. Mary's Women's Auxiliary, welcomed members.

REPORTS GIVEN

Mrs. S. G. Wilson, treasurer, reported total receipts for two months as $1,452.50; Mrs. H. Ballantyne announced $180 in the extra cents fund and from this $75 was voted for installation of a furnace at the Comox rectory; educational secretary, Miss W. E. Seymour, reported for her branch.

Mrs. F. A. Goodwin was named delegate to the annual meeting of the Dominion board at Fredericton, N.B., Sept. 20 to 22, and it was announced Mrs. Taylor will also attend.

During the session a life membership in the women's auxiliary was given to Mrs. W. Mackenzie, past diocesan president, with Mrs. Taylor reading the service, Miss B. P. Foster presenting the certificate, Miss D. Mitchell the pin and Mrs. F. J. Brimer, also a Dominion life member, a bouquet of roses.

Lady Lake thanked the guest speaker for his address and Mrs. Taylor expressed thanks of the gathering to St. Mary's auxiliary. Next meeting will be held at St. Paul's, Esquimalt, on Sept. 16.

Today's Recipe

MACARON RINGS

Two egg whites, 1 cup brown or granulated sugar, ½ teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups corn flakes, ½ cup chopped nuts, 1 cup shredded coconut.

Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Fold in sugar, flavoring, corn flakes, nuts and coconut. Mix carefully. Drop by spoonfuls onto greased cookie sheet and form into rings about 3½ inches in outside diameter. Bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) 15 to 20 minutes or until browned. Remove immediately from baking sheet. Serve with fresh fruit in centre of ring. Yield: Six rings (3½ inches).

Drew Election Promises Insult To Electorate, Says Isherwood

The election promises of George Drew and his Progressive Conservative supporters were described here Monday night by Foster Isherwood, Liberal candidate in Vancouver-Quadra, as an insult to the intelligence of the Canadian electorate.

Speaking in Quadra Street School in support of Fisheries Minister R. W. Mayhew, Liberal candidate in Victoria for the federal general election next Monday, Mr. Isherwood said that the Progressive Conservative program to increase old age pensions and provide many other services to the Canadian people while at the same time to reduce taxes "do not add up so far as I am concerned."

"Obviously they are not going to do them both at the same time," he said.

Of the other hand the record of the Liberal government was one of which every Canadian should be proud, said the 27-year-old candidate, who if elected will be the youngest man sent by British Columbia to the House of Commons.

SOME SCOFFED

While some had scoffed at Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe's prediction that 4,700,000 Canadians would be gainfully employed during the postwar years, actually at the present time more than 5,000,000 are employed, he said. At the same time the Liberal government had reduced taxes by $1,252,000,000 and reduced the national debt by $1,625,000,000.

The saving in interest on the national debt, he said, had made it possible to increase the old age pension.

"That to me is good housekeeping," he said.

Mr. Mayhew, answering charges of Mr. Drew that the government had failed in its duty by shortening the session of Parliament to call the election, said that the session could not have been called earlier because it was necessary to effect the entry of Newfoundland into Confederation, to extend wartime controls, particularly on rents, and to endorse the North Atlantic Security Pact. While Mr. Drew had charged that the government had no intention of adopting the budget, Mr. Mayhew said Canada at the present time was operating under the budget.

"We are going on with all our undertakings as though all estimates had been passed," he said. "The budget is a contract. No one would think of violating that contract."

FINANCIAL POLICIES

Mr. Mayhew also criticized both the Conservative and C.C.F. policies toward price controls and said adoption of the C.C.F. policy of maintaining subsidies to keep the cost of living down would have made it impossible to reduce taxes and the national debt. Canada's financial position today, had that policy been followed, would have been absolutely false, he said.

"I know of no country which is not envious of Canada's financial position," he said. "You are getting the benefits of that."

He went on to explain that family allowances, old age pension payments, unemployment insurance and payment of victory bond interest would act as pump primers should Canada's economy face difficult times.

J. B. Clearhue, K.C., who also spoke in support of Mr. Mayhew, said that whenever Victoria needed anyone to plead its cause in Ottawa, Mr. Mayhew was always on the job.

President Lauds U.S. Canadian Co-operation

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — President Truman said Monday night co-operation between the U.S. and Canada "stands as an example to peoples all over the world who dream such co-operation on a universal scale." His message was to the annual convention of Kiwanis International.

PAPER PILE IGNITES—City firemen brought under control a fire which broke out Monday afternoon in a pile of scrap paper at the Sidney Roofing and Paper Company plant on the industrial reserve. For a time the fire threatened a stack of cordwood. Fire fighters were called to the scene at 3:08. Pump trucks attended for four hours and 28 minutes. Watchers were left on duty all night to guard against a fresh outbreak. The paper pile is close to the old Sweeney Coopers mill conveyor which was gutted by fire less than two weeks ago.

Food Seen As Key To World Peace

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Kiwanians were told today "the key to world peace may be food." J. W. G. MacEwen, dean of agriculture at the University of Manitoba, told the 34th annual convention of Kiwanis International:

"By well-directed food policies we stand to improve soils, increase security, feed hungry people and create goodwill among men."

MacEwen said it takes two and a half acres to give each person an adequate diet, but there are only two acres per person available.

"There can be no real surplus of good food; there's not enough land."

"If local surplus of food occurs, the explanation must be failure in human relations rather than too much food."

World population continues to grow, MacEwen said, and by the end of this century it is estimated there will be 3,000,000,000 persons on earth.

"Every morning when you awaken, the world has about 50,000 extra people for breakfast."

"Nutrition is more basic to human welfare and world peace than rockets and bombs. The germs of suspicion and war breed where people are hungry."

PLUNGED TO DEATH

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP) — Seconds before a rescue net would have been ready, Clarence E. Schwab, 47, plunged to his death Monday night from the fifth floor of a downtown building here. A crowd of 500 gathered as he hesitated for 15 minutes before committing suicide.

Johnny's Coffee Shop Modernly Renovated

Forty years ago an enterprising restaurant man, Mr. Theodore Alexis, started a little confectionery shop at the corner of Fort and Quadra and called it "Johnny's." It was a popular rendezvous and did a flourishing business.

In 1934 young Johnny Alexis took over the business, and in 1938 he added a coffee bar to the confectionery shop. The place became more popular than ever, and in 1943 Johnny purchased the Quadra Block. He believes that Fort Street has a great merchandising future, and has spent the past few months in renovating and redecorating the entire building.

The coffee shop has been extended to occupy twice the area formerly used. It is bright, airy and inviting. There is a large oval coffee bar, finished in natural birch to blend with the other new fixtures. There are comfortable lunch booths, attractively upholstered in delphinium blue leather. Lovick's News Agency are showing their magazines in a specially designed blonde birch stand. The entire shop is attractively lit with fluorescent lighting fixtures.

The exterior is finished in delphinium blue vitrolite. A 50-foot neon sign is strategically placed so that it may be seen from blocks away on either Fort or Quadra.

Chevrons photographic studio has been moved into new quarters designed and decorated for taking good photos. Johnny has been fortunate in having the co-operation of contractors, workmen and customers, which has made it possible to keep the coffee shop operating during the months of renovating.

Pets Apt To Stray When Family Away

With vacation time here the S.P.C.A. is concerned over what is happening to family pets, and officials of the Victoria branch Monday made this suggestion:

"Enjoy your holiday to the fullest and place your dog or cat in a good boarding kennel while you are away. The resulting peace of mind will be worth the cost."

Mrs. Florence Barr, secretary of the branch, said the S.P.C.A. in past years has come up against many cases of pets straying when families have left them in charge of neighbors while they were vacationing.

"The neighbors might be well-meaning, but the pets miss their masters. A boarding kennel might not give them all the personal treatment they are used to, but at least the pet will not wander away and become lost," Mrs. Barr said.

5,000,000 Jobless In U.S. Soon, Two Surveys Indicate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two national surveys agree the United States soon may have 5,000,000 or more jobless, but they disagree on what will happen next.

In reports published during the week-end:

The Public Affairs Institute warned: "Nothing in sight indicates a halt in unemployment trends."

The American Federation of Labor declared: "A serious business recession is almost impossible."

Senator O'Mahoney said the situation is confused and Congress will study it.

The Public Affairs Institute, which describes itself as a non-profit, non-partisan research organization, predicted 8,000,000 workers will be out of jobs a year from now unless the federal government steps in to give business a boost.

Unemployment may hit 6,000,000 by the end of this year, the institute added.

In a special report on employment, the institute recommended tax cuts for the low and middle income brackets, emergency public works in hard-hit areas, revival of the Civilian Conservation Corps, and other federal actions to reassure and stimulate business.

"Unemployment has passed the 'spot' stage," the institute said. "It is not a local, but a national, problem."

The A.F.L. looked over the economic outlook in its magazine, "labor's monthly survey," and found the prospect good. It acknowledged there are some dangers, however, and said policies of unions, management and the government right now are "all important."

It warned this is no time for government, management, or unions to start any tinkering that might bring on inflation again.

Tax To Be Levied Against Tabernacle, Council Decides

If a church is registered as being privately owned then the registered owners shall be required to pay taxes on it, Esquimalt Council ruled Monday night.

The decision was made after a letter was read from J. A. Wild, notary public, asking council to exempt from taxation the Bethel Tabernacle, Colville Road.

Mr. Wild stated in his letter that the Tabernacle was used exclusively for the worship of God, and should, therefore, be exempt from taxation as other churches in the municipality.

The church operates, Mr. Wild noted, under the auspices of the Glad Tidings Tabernacle, 842 North Park Street.

Reeve A. I. Thomas observed that the church was registered as being owned by Mr. Wild, E. E. Goodwyn and A. F. Craddock.

"As long as the building is privately owned it shall be taxed," the reeve said. "If the church was named as the registered owner, it would be a different matter and there would be no taxes."

Councillor Hospitalized To Have Eye Operation

Esquimalt Councillor James A. Ellis entered hospital today to undergo an eye operation. The councillor's sight has been failing for some time but the operation is expected to rectify the condition.

At a meeting of the municipal council Monday night, Councillor A. C. Wurtele was appointed to assume the duties of finance committee chairman while Councillor Ellis is away.

The entire council joined in wishing Councillor Ellis a speedy and sure recovery.

Why I Will Vote MAYHEW

RONALD V. REID

Ronald V. Reid is a Navy veteran who works as a linen porter at the Jubilee Hospital.

"I am voting for the Hon. R. W. Mayhew on June 27," he said with no hesitation, "because I believe he, like his party stands for sound principles and has done a lot for Victoria and will continue to exert himself and do still more."

Born in Merritt, B.C., Mr. Reid has lived most of his life in Victoria. He and his wife and three young daughters now occupy a house built under the Central Mortgage and Housing scheme on Forbes St.

Asked what she used the family allowance money for Mrs. Reid promptly replied "Shoes." Sharon, Colleen and Maureen, aged nine, six and three respectively wear out a good many pairs of shoes.

Esquimalt Prepares Three Resolutions For U.B.C.M.

Esquimalt Council will bring three resolutions before the annual meeting of the Union of B.C. Municipalities at its fall session in Victoria, it was decided Monday night.

The council is primarily interested in getting the union to back its demand for federal government financial aid to municipalities in which the Crown has holdings.

In Esquimalt, the Department of National Defence holds much valuable property for army and navy use. Yet it pays no taxes either on the land or on the buildings which cover the land.

Council maintains that grants should be made by the government in lieu of payment of taxes.

The present set-up is inequitable it feels, since the government relies on the municipality to provide many services and facilities.

The second resolution the council will introduce to the union meetings asks that the Provincial government create a provincial assessment commission. Such a commission would evaluate property and holdings throughout B.C. and only one standard would be used.

ASK EXEMPTION

Third resolution which the council will foster asks that the federal government exempt from income tax remuneration paid mayors, reeves, aldermen and councillors.

The council decided to support a City of Victoria resolution, calling for the Provincial government to make available one-half the revenue gained by the 3 per cent sales tax for municipal aid.

At the present time, municipalities receive one-third of tax receipts while the other two-thirds is spent on social assistance.

Says Rebuilding Of Admirals Road Taking Too Long

Criticism was leveled against Esquimalt's public works committee at a municipal council meeting Monday night over the way the committee is handling reconstruction of Admirals Road, near H.M.C.S. Naden.

Chief critic was Councillor G. R. Guillemaud, who declared the project was dragging on too long.

"That road has been blocked so long people are beginning to wonder if it will ever be opened," he said.

Work on the project commenced two months ago, Ed. Fulcher, municipal superintendent of works, estimates the job will take one month more to complete.

Councillor Guillemaud asked Reeve A. I. Thomas, chairman of the public works committee, if there was any way possible to speed up reconstruction of the road.

His question was answered by Mr. Fulcher, who said the only way to speed up operations would be for the municipality to hire a fleet of trucks. At the present time, he pointed out, only one truck, owned by the municipality, is on the job.

Councillor Charles Smith wondered if the road would be open before the start of the tourist season.

"Tourist season!" exclaimed Councillor Guillemaud. "You mean will it be ready before Christmas?"

"Oh, no," replied Councillor Smith. "It's not as black as all that."

No Facilities For Outside Employees

The question of whether or not a municipality should provide temporary sanitary facilities for its employees while they are working on an outside job, was raised at a meeting of Esquimalt Council Monday night by Councillor James Ellis.

The point was brought up when council was discussing a city ordinance which requires contractors and the like to erect temporary toilets and other sanitary facilities for their employees during the course of construction.

Councillor Ellis observed municipal public works employees were often sent to do work in districts having no public sanitary facilities.

Reeve A. I. Thomas said he did not believe the city, Saanich or Oak Bay provided any facilities for their workmen but agreed it was a matter for study.

The council's by-laws committee was asked to look into the matter and report back at a future meeting.

Vining Street Fires Arouse Suspicions
T. Tyson, 973 Inverness Avenue, has asked for a city police watch to be kept on three houses he has under construction in the 1300 block of Vining Street due to suspicious fires there in the last month.

On Sunday firemen put out a fire which did damage to walls and shipyard of one of the Tyson houses. They attributed it to a grass fire caused possibly by someone discarding a live cigarette stub.

Mr. Tyson, however, told police the blaze was started when tar paper was set on fire.

The owner said a fire was started a month ago in the same house. He said an elderly woman who had a garden next door saw a man coming out of the house on this occasion half an hour before the fire was noticed.

Many Involved In Chicken Killing

A neighborhood argument which arose when a dog killed some chickens, now has the law courts; Esquimalt Council and the Royal Canadian Navy involved.

The chickens belonged to a woman resident of Admirals Road. The dog belongs to an across-the-street neighbor.

When the chickens were killed, the neighbor agreed to assume some responsibility, according to the plaintiff. However, time went by and no attempt at settlement was made.

Finally, the owner of the deceased chickens brought court action against the dog owner. It cost $7 for court forms to even open the case, the plaintiff found.

The case was heard, however, and the plaintiff won—in a legal sense only. The owner of the dog, being the wife of a navy man and having a large family, said she would be unable to pay for the chickens and up until now has not done so.

In desperation, the plaintiff turned to the Esquimalt Council for assistance. The council found, however, that under a municipal by-law it is in no way responsible for making good damage done by the dog.

Councillors are very much in sympathy with the woman, however, and spent time at their simply dissolve and disappear by this one simple and sure method. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store, sprinkle on a hot wet cloth, and apply gently—every blackhead will be gone.

Esquimalt To Consider Post Office Suggestion

Councillor Fred Higgins at an Esquimalt Council meeting Monday night, suggested the municipality apply to Ottawa to have its own post office.

The suggestion was not discussed at the meeting, but Reeve A. I. Thomas assured Councillor Higgins the council would be asked to express its views on the subject at a future meeting.

Newfoundland is Canada's newest province, yet the oldest historically.

meeting Monday night trying to figure out a solution. They decided she had best contact the commanding officer of the husband of the dog owner, and see if he can't straighten the problem out.

Councillors also considered possible action against the offending canine.

Councillor John Carey noted. "If there was a fence around the woman's property and if the dog got inside, she could shoot it."

"Oh, no," said Reeve A. I. Thomas. "No one is allowed to discharge a firearm within the municipality."

Councillor James Ellis thought the penalty would be light for firing a gun, and that Councillor Carey's idea was worth consideration.

"You're going to have the S.P.C.A. after you," warned Councillor G. R. Guillemaud.

Tim Buck Predicts Liberal Victory

WINNIPEG (CP)—Tim Buck, national leader of the Labor Progressive Party, predicted Monday night the Liberals will be returned to power with a clear majority in the June 27 federal election.

The C.C.F., he said, will suffer heavy losses and the Progressive Conservatives will take a sound beating. He spoke at a public rally in support of Joseph Zuken, his party's nominee in Winnipeg North.

Mr. Buck, in an hour-long speech, said Liberals, Progressive Conservatives and C.C.F. have formed a pact of agreement on all main election issues and denounce each other only because denouncement is not decisive.

NOTICE PROPOSED INCREASE IN BUS CHARTER FARES

An application has been made to the Public Utilities Commission under the "Motor Carriage Act" by the motor carriers concerned for a revision by the Commission of the rates and rules prescribed by it for bus charter fares for Victoria and vicinity, such revision to become effective July 1st, 1949. A copy of the application may be seen at the offices of the Commission, 519 Central Building, Victoria, B.C., and at the Victoria offices of the applicants, namely:

B. C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd., 1016 Langley Street.
Blue Line Transit Limited, 746 Yates Street.
C. A. C. Taxi Service Limited, 906 Government Street.
Gray Line Tours, Sightseeing & Taxi Co., P.N.S. Building, Humboldt Street.
Vancouver Island Coach Lines Limited, 629 Broughton Street.

The proposed revision provides that charter rates for passenger vehicles operated in Victoria and vicinity having a capacity of over 7 passengers shall be as follows:

Bus Capacity	Rate per mile*operated	Minimum Charge
Up to 36 passengers	45¢	$10.00
37 to 48 passengers	50¢	12.50
Over 48 passengers	55¢	15.00

Provided that a $7.50 minimum charge will apply to all sizes of vehicles for charters which do not extend beyond the 3 1/2-mile radius from the Victoria City Hall.

The proposed revision also provides that extra expenses incurred will be charged in addition. These include such things as ferry tolls, operators' meal and hotel expenses, and waiting time charges.

Any objections to the proposed revision are to be filed with the Public Utilities Commission, 519 Central Building, Victoria, B.C., not later than June 27th, 1949.

Staley Proves Big Stopper For Cards

"Staley, the giant killer"—that's what St. Louis fans are calling Gerald Lee Staley, 25-year-old, broad-shouldered righthander of St. Louis Cardinals.

Primarily a bull-pen operative last year and at the start of the current season, Staley had been going great guns since given a starter's role May 28.

Staley pitched the Cards to within a half-game of the National League's leading Brooklyn Dodgers last night, beating the New York Giants 7 to 2, in St. Louis. The Dodgers were idle.

The triumph was Staley's fifth of the season and his third over the once-powerful Giants who occupy fifth place.

The Cards nipped Monte Kennedy for a run in the first and drove the young lefty to cover with four more in the third. Red Schoendienst collected four of the Cards' 13 hits to boost his average to .357, a point back of Brooklyn Jackie Robinson's league-leading .358.

WIN IN NINTH

Boston's third-place Braves crawled to within two games of the Dodgers, edging the Chicago Cubs, 3 to 2, in the majors' only day game. Elbie Fletcher singled home Ed Stanky from second base in the ninth inning with the winning run.

Vern Bickford went all the way to gain his ninth victory. Hank Sauer accounted for Chicago's run with an eighth-inning homer.

The fourth place Philadelphia Phillies, behind the seven-hit pitching of Russ Meyer, turned back the Pirates, 7 to 1, in Pittsburgh. Meyer also took a hand in the Phils' 15-hit attack, socking two singles and driving home a pair of runs.

The New York Yankees grabbed a lighter hold on the American League lead, increasing their advantage to four games over the runner-up Detroit Tigers. The Yanks beat the St. Louis Browns, 4 to 1, while the Tigers lost, 6 to 1, to the Red Sox in Boston.

Fred Sanford, pried from the Browns for $100,000 in the fall, limited his former mates to seven hits. Jack Phillips socked his first homer of the season with two on in the sixth inning.

Walt Masterson, recently obtained from Washington, and Joe Dobson halted the Tigers on six blows while the Sox collected 14 off a trio of Detroit pitchers.

The third place Philadelphia Athletics inched to within a half-game of Detroit, beating the world champion Cleveland Indians, 4 to 1, before 19,561 rooters in the Quaker city.

Dick Fowler, who came to the majors from Toronto, granted the Indians only four hits in posting his fifth straight triumph and sixth of the season. Elmer Valo hit an inside the park homer in the second.

TO ORGANIZE 3-TEAM JUVENILE BOXLEAGUE

Juvenile lacrosse players between the ages of 13 and 16 are reminded of the workout scheduled for Stevenson Memorial Park this afternoon at 3:30.

Following the practice session, teams will be picked for the juvenile league. It is hoped to organize a three-team league with play to start on Wednesday night as a preliminary game to the Pro-Patria-Jokers' junior clash.

Games will start at 6 and 7. Preliminary to tonight's senior clash between Tillicum and Foul Bay will find the Peevees in action, starting at 5:45. The No. 3 team will play Jokers.

B.C. Women's Tee Tourney Opens At Oak Bay

Awaiting their turn to tee off in the qualifying round of the British Columbia women's closed golf championship at Victoria Golf Club are the four "T" shirt women of the tourney. Left to right: Grace Thompson, Mrs. Jack Campbell and Mrs. J. S. McVicar, all of Vancouver Capilano; Elizabeth Paynter, Ardmore. Miss Thomson with 87 and Miss Paynter with 86 qualified for the championship flight. Mrs. Campbell had a medal round of 101 and Mrs. McVicar 103. Both the latter pair failed to qualify.

Marg Todd Medalist In Provincial Golf

Mrs. Margaret Todd, defending champion, yesterday fired a six over par 80 to capture medalist honors in the 18-hole qualifying round of the British Columbia women's closed golf championships at Victoria Club from a field of 40 entrants.

The Oak Bay shotmaker, playing over her home course at Oak Bay, was out in 37, two over par, and came in in 43, four over regulation figure. In Mrs. Todd's total were two birdies, nine pars, six bogies and one double bogey.

10 VICTORIANS

Mrs. H. T. Matson of Colwood, Mrs. Helen Cleat, Vancouver City champion and Marjorie Todd shared runner-up honors with 83's. Highly regarded Elizabeth Paynter of Ardmore Club had an 86 while a strong mainland finisher, Mrs. Bryce Evans, finished with an 84.

Other Victorians to qualify included Mrs. G. E. Harris, Isabel Jarvis, Mrs. A. Dowell, Peggy Bagley, Mrs. S. R. Weston and Mrs. E. Jackson.

Match play begins today continuing until Friday when the 36-hole final will take place.

Doug Bajus Leader

VANCOUVER (CP)—Despite a last-round challenge by young Bill Mawhinney, Doug Bajus finished on top of the Vancouver city amateur golf tournament qualifying round over the weekend posting a 36-hole total of 142.

Bajus, lanky star of the University of British Columbia golf team, added a two-under-par 69 to his morning 73 over Point Grey golf course.

Of the 20 other championship-flight survivors, Mawhinney was closest to Bajus with 143.

Quarter-Finals Hold Spot In Club Tennis

Play ran true to form in all matches in the club championship at the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club last night.

All seeded players still remain in the men's singles and quarter-final matches starting tomorrow evening will provide the first real test of strength for many of the players.

One quarter-final preview will go tonight when second seeded Carl Brand tangles with eighth seeded Jack Parker. Parker is playing well and is not to be underrated in his chances against the veteran player. Parker earned the right to play Brand when he disposed of Warren Cameron Monday evening, 6-3, 6-4.

Dave Williams and Thorluf Juelsberg will seek the remaining quarter-final slots in matches scheduled tonight. All quarter-finalists have been named in the women's singles.

GOOD DOUBLES PLAY

Mixed doubles, an event often overlooked, has provided some interesting matches in the tournament to date. A number of evenly matched teams are making the final outcome hard to predict. Bill Dunbar and Peggy Jackson have drawn top seeding but are likely to receive strong competition from such teams as Brand and Dot Edwards, Juelsberg and Patience Birley and McArthur and Pat Cowan.

TONIGHT'S DRAW

Yesterday's results follow:
Dunbar and N. Bergstrassen beat Mrs. G. Young and Mrs. E. Jackson 6-3, 6-2; Parker beat Cameron 6-3, 6-4; Jackson beat Tooby 6-2, 6-2; Peacock beat Browning 6-1, 6-1; D. Edwards beat L. Chiu 6-2, 6-1; Strasson beat Woodruff 6-3, 6-2; Heseltine beat Gills 6-1, 6-2; Gordon and Jackson beat Todd and Robbins 6-0, 6-1; P. Jackson and Dunbar beat Mrs. Dawson and Cameron 6-4, 6-4; Mr. Ford beat M. Longridge 6-2, 6-1; J. Pollock beat E. MacDonald 6-0, 6-0; Jones beat W. J. Penny, E. Mitchell beat J. Heilmann 6-1, 6-0; Juelsberg and Edwards beat Kimball and W. O. Smith; G. Hartley beat D. Todd 6-3, 6-0; C. Jones beat W. O. Beveridge; N. Lamb beat N. Weisman 6-1, 6-4; F. Wason beat J. Pollock 6-1, 6-4, 6-6.

5-Brand vs. Parker;
6-Morrow vs. Gracie; Winkler vs. Olsen; Yellowgreen vs. Kimball; Gusto vs. Henley; Hough vs. Topkalian;
6-Jones vs. Landrieu; Hule vs. Bishop; Mrs. Ford and Williams vs. Mrs. Edwards and Brand; Mrs. J. Wason vs. Mrs. M. Wilkinson;
6-4-Juulsberg vs. Sherman;
7-13-N. Bergstrassen vs. E. Wasklyn.

Stan Tenning Stops Timberman On 3 Hits

Pitcher Stan Tenning, once the mainstay of the Timber Service staff, but now coach of the Chinese Students in the Men's Senior Softball League, last night took to the hill and let his former mates down with three scattered hits in hurling the Students to a 2 to 1 victory over Wally Smith's fast-slipping nine.

The skidding timberman who in the early part of the season was pressing Douglas Tire for the league lead now find themselves in fourth place, half a game behind the Students who in turn trail second-place Brentwood by the same margin.

PITCHERS' BATTLE

For five innings Timberman's Ray Hough and Tenning engaged in a brilliant scoreless duel. Tenning gave up his only run of the game in the top of the sixth on a walk, a fielder's choice and an error. Then in the bottom of the sixth the Students retaliated with their only two markers of the contest.

Singles by Jimmy John and Quinton Mar and double by Don Lee accounted for the Student tallies as Hough momentarily weakened. Both pitchers hurled scoreless ball the rest of the way.

Hough gave up seven hits while two of the hits of Tenning were made by Mickey Smith.

Tonight Douglas Tire will meet Bluebird Cabs at upper Central 6-45.

BIG BLOW

Faced by Harry Powell's grand-slam home run, Hemsworth's knocked Garrison out of a tie for first place in the Men's Senior B League with an 8 to 6 triumph.

In women's senior B action Sidney maintained its unbeaten record for the season by edging Adverts, 11 to 9. Loss prevented Adverts from moving into a first-place tie and dropped them alongside Red's Service.

Dodgerettes walloped Moose, 12 to 4, in the other scheduled league contest. Teams are tied for fifth place.

Short score of senior game follows:

R. H. E.
Timber Service ..... 1 3 0
Chinese Students ..... 3 7 3
Hough and Wilson, Smith (5); Tenning and Chow.

Miss Canada IV Turns Up Speed In Opening Trials

GRAVENHURST, Ont. (CP)—Miss Canada IV, the Dominion's hope in the Harmsworth trophy powerboat race in early August on the Detroit River, has undergone her first trial run. Owner Harold Wilson, her driver, expressed satisfaction over the performance.

Despite a series of minor mishaps Saturday as the 2,500-horsepower craft was transported from the builders' plant here to nearby Lake Muskoka, Miss Canada IV churned for several hundred yards at a maximum of 1,400 revolutions.

First the champagne bottle wielded by Mrs. Wilson failed to break against the hull during the traditional christening ceremony. But a second swipe at a steel cap protecting the nose of the $17,000 hull was successful.

Then the craft slid down the ways—but Wilson found himself

Johnny Mize Leads First-Base Voting

CHICAGO (AP)—Johnny Mize of the New York Giants today shot into first place among the National League's first-sackers in the all-star baseball poll.

Despite his disappointing batting average thus far, Mize is supported by 182,316 votes, 11,113 more than Eddie Waitkus of the Philadelphia Phillies.

The balloting, to select the starting line-up for the All-Star game in Brooklyn July 12, will end at midnight, June 29.

TIME OUT!

"Now show me how to use a putter... there might be times when I'd miss one of these approach shots!"

Pitzer-Nex Win Amateur Baseball; 16 Errors Charged

In one of the worst displays of the season, Pitzer and Nex regained its full game lead at the top of the Senior Amateur Baseball League last night by whipping Navy, 14 to 11, in an error-ridden tilt.

The fans got an early glimpse into what kind of a game would follow as each club scored a total of five runs in the first inning.

Pitzer Don Evans' error was mainly responsible for Gasmen's three runs in the top of the third, but this was nullified in the next frame as the bluejackets came back with a trio on two Pitzer and Nex miscues.

Evans finally retired in the top of the fifth after giving up two more tallies and southpaw Tony Bishop took over, being charged with the loss.

The same pattern followed in the Pitzer and Nex camp in the last of the sixth as wildness sent Cliff Hume to the showers after he allowed another pair of tallies to tie the score at 10 to 6. Manager Rosy McLellan took over from Hume.

Winners finally broke the deadlock in the seventh when with two out, Bernie Clarkson and Bill Reynolds singled in succession. Bud French drew a walk. Del Bertrand hit an infield safety and Roger Ross drew another pass to give Gasmen a 12 to 10 lead.

Tars sliced the margin in their half with an unearned tally but the leaders saluted it away in the eighth with another brace.

Bertrand with four for five and Ken Higgs with three for four paced winners' attack. Handyman Geoff Worrall was top man for Navy with two hits and four walks in six trips.

Short score follows:

R. H. E.
Pitzer and Nex ..... 14 13 9
Navy ..... 11 7 7
Hume, McLellan (6) and Bert; Evans, Bishop (5) and Hyslop, Worrall (6).

Old-Timers To Feature Trap Shooting Sunday

Old-timers of the Victoria Gun Club will be in the limelight Sunday when the "60 and over" group gun for special trophies at the Albert Head Road shooting grounds.

This will be the feature event of the afternoon.

The older members of the club will show just how good they are at the sport of cracking the clays on both the skeet and trap ranges.

In legs of trophy shoots held Sunday, Ted Bailey scored his fifth victory in the C.I.L. Shield skeet event. His score was 25-straight.

A Johnson of Nanaimo registered a similar score to win the round of the Colonist Cup. In a delayed shootout in this competition F. Denton of Nanaimo defeated Clarke Atchison of Victoria. It was Denton's second victory.

In the Humber Handicap trap trophy competition Russ Pottinger and Bill Dalziel finished even with 24-25, and Dalziel won the shootout with a 23 against Pottinger's 22. Henry Pottinger blasted 22 of the 24 targets in the Zaccarelli Doubles Trophy leg on the trap.

Enter British Golf

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Frank Stranahan, Toledo, O., amateur who holds the Canadian title, and professional Bobby Locke of South Africa head a list of 245 entries for the British Open golf championship to be held July 4 to 8 at Royal St. George's, Sandwich.

Twenty-seven overseas sharpshooters are among those competing for the title being vacated by Henry Cotton, British professional.

Cotton, who won the crown for the third time at Muirfield last summer, has not entered, explaining he plans to devote much of the year to private business and has not been able to practice.

St. George's is the course over which Stranahan won the British amateur championship in 1948.

Heavyweight Fight Appears Even Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—For the first time since Joe Louis cornered the heavyweight boxing market 12 years ago and whipped all comers, an even contest for the title has shaped up in the Ezzard Charles-Jersey Joe Walcott scrap tomorrow night.

Although the bout has been dubbed the "slim pickin'" heavyweight championship, it sincerely presents two fired-up contestants who are not afraid of each other and appear evenly matched.

Louis, before he retired, was always an overwhelming favorite who usually came through on schedule in cut-and-dried fashion.

Walcott, the 35-year-old family man from Camden, N.J., and 27-year-old Charles, unmarried Cincinnati slugger who has lost only four times in eight years, are expected to enter the ring at odds of about 6-5, take your pick.

Arthur Wirtz, co-partner with Joe Louis and Jim Norris in the International Boxing Club, which is promoting the bout, says the advance sale is "between $250,000 and $300,000." This indicates that some 25,000 to 30,000 patrons will see the show at Comiskey Park, where Louis defeated James J. Braddock for the crown exactly 12 years ago to the day.

WILL BE BROADCAST

The fight, scheduled for about 7:30 P.D.T., will be broadcast coast-to-coast over some 300 stations. It will be on television on a network of 16 or 17 stations from St. Louis eastward to Boston with the Chicago area—a 200-mile radius—black-out.

The scrap has the blessing of the National Boxing Association but is being snubbed as a title

Porky Oliver Leads In Washington Golf

WENATCHEE, Wash. (AP)—Sporting a two-day score of 139, Ed (Porky) Oliver of Seattle leads the field into the final 36-hole round of the Washington State Open golf tournament today.

He added a three-under-par 69 yesterday to his first-day score of 70. Bud Ward of Spokane and Stan Leonard of Vancouver, B.C., were tied for runner-up with 140.

Ward sizzled for a 68 yesterday. Frank Nevell of Tacoma had 144 and Joe Greer, Yakima; Harry Umbinetti, Seattle; O. Ellison, Tacoma and Erv Parent, Seattle, had 145s.

Daily Double Pays $1,574 At Winnipeg

WINNIPEG (CP)—They posted $1,574.85 on the board Monday at Polo Park and seven lucky people went away from the track that much happier. That was the payoff figure for the daily double and it was the highest for many a moon.

WORLD RENOWNED TOBACCO BLENDED IN SCOTLAND

For a new high in smoking pleasure, try a pipeful of FOUR SQUARE. After slow maturing in the wood, this choice tobacco is preserved in vacuum-sealed tins. FOUR SQUARE is as fresh as on the day it left Scotland. Six different blends—from all good tobaccoists.

- FOUR SQUARE RED—A unique blend of finest Virginia leaf, in broken flake form. Very cool and slow burning.
- FOUR SQUARE BLUE—Pure Virginia and fine Oriental tobaccos ready for your pipe—the supreme example of balanced blending.
- FOUR SQUARE YELLOW—A blend of Empire-grown Virginia and Oriental tobaccos cut from the cake and ready for your pipe.
- FOUR SQUARE GREEN—A superb blend of Empire-grown Virginia and Oriental tobaccos. Free from added scents or flavors.
- FOUR SQUARE PURPLE—A balanced blend of Empire-grown Virginia tobaccos rolled and cut into discs, for a mellow smoke.
- FOUR SQUARE BROWN—Quality Empire-grown Virginia leaf processed to a rich dark colour. A really good sassy cut tobacco.

Genuine DUROID

Here's Why

Paying for a house is tough enough. Without fixing it as you go along. Our roof is DUROID—and it hasn't cost a cent for painting or repair.

In-the-beginning—we had a 66-foot lot, a little money and a big desire. Knowing that long years of payments lay ahead, we wanted our home to be worth owning by the time we'd paid in full.

Our contractor said, "DUROID will last."

Our friends said, "DUROID is bright and colorful."

And our uncle who loaned us some money said, "DUROID is a good buy."

They were all right! We've made the last payment and our roof is as good as new.

'Ouch!'---He Was Really Begging For A Fine

"That law has been in force in this city for 45 years—and look what happens right in front of our police department," exclaimed Claude L. Harrison, city prosecutor.

He was looking out of his office window in the police station building at 10 this morning watching a wood truck depositing a load of wood on the street.

The wood dumping at that hour of the day is prohibited under the streets and traffic regulations by-law. The by-law prohibits dumping of wood on the street after 9 in the morning and also provides that "no person shall place an obstruction to traffic" on certain streets.

Incidentally, the load was dropped in a yellow-lined zone restricted for the parking of police vehicles only.

Mr. Harrison has many times been heard to make comments about the practice of wood-dumping on Fisgard Street—especially on occasions where the wood was allowed to stay there for long periods. This morning, however, a packer started removing the wood as soon as it was dumped.

Cost Of Converting Boat Subject Of Court Litigation

Cost of converting and reconstructing an R.C.A.F. tender into a motor-sailer for pleasure purposes, was the subject of litigation in Supreme Court before Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane today.

The case involves McKay-Cormack Ltd., boat builders, who claim a sum of $11,328 from Capt. William Boyd Love Holmes, a retired naval officer now living at View Royal. The sum represents what the company claims is the balance owed to them by Capt. Holmes for converting the craft known as the Menita.

In opening the case for the firm, David Sigler, counsel, assisted by John McIntosh, said the total cost for converting the craft amounted to $24,702. Work on the boat was commenced at Falconer Industries Ltd. in May, 1948, but the job of finishing the craft was later turned over to McKay-Cormack Ltd. for completion.

Mr. Sigler said the firm arranged with Capt. Holmes to complete the vessel on "a time and material basis," and all the work on the boat had been carried out on the defendant's instruction.

George Marshall, former office manager for the Falconer Marine Industries, was the first witness to the stand. He said that prior to the boat being turned over to McKay-Cormack, he discussed with Capt. Holmes the cost of converting the boat.

The case is continuing. R. D. Harvey, K.C., is representing the defendant.

Awards Made To School Patrols

Special certificates were given 23 present and immediate past students of North Ward School for their participation in the Kiwanis Club's school traffic safety patrol system.

J. F. K. English, municipal inspector of schools for Greater Victoria area, presented the certificates. Recipients were Donald Tredgear (lieut.), Edward Stennerson, Robert Huntley, Gay Wheeler, Peter Fong, Vanindar Singh, Douglas Brambough, Edward Lunt, Wayne Halstrom, Wasson Quam, Robert Salter, Stanley Johnson, Norman Bodet, John Borge, Gerald Lee, Reginald Der, Herman Leung, Yinnie Lim, Edward Lee (lieut.), David Lowe, Fraser MacDonald (lieut.), Arthur Mossychn (lieut.) and Robert Zarzy (capt.).

Halstrom, Quam, Salter and Johnson received one-year patrol certificates; the remainder two-year certificates. Nineteen of those receiving awards are now either out of the school, in grade 9 or at other schools in the area.

Annual Flower Show To Open Wednesday

The annual summer flower show of the Victoria Horticultural Society will open Wednesday afternoon at 4 in the lower ballroom of the Crystal Garden.

Roses will be the feature of the show. This section will be under the joint auspices of the horticultural society and the Victoria Rose Society.

The begonia displays will present a wide range of color, the begonia society actively participating in their display.

Delphiniums, lupins, peonies and other flowers will add their beauty to a colorful picture. There will be arrangements in baskets and in bowls and special arrangements for dining tables.

A growing interest among the young people will be shown in the entries in the junior section, for the "under 18's."

The Oak Bay Municipal Challenge Trophy will be presented for the champion rose of the show, to be selected from all exhibits. The show will be open on Thursday from 10 in the morning to 9:30 in the evening, when auction of some of the exhibits will be held.

Conciliation Officer For Duncan Dispute

J. T. W. Place, Vancouver, has been named by the Labor Relations Board as conciliation officer to assist the King's Daughters' Hospital, Duncan, and the Vancouver Hospital Employees' Federal Union, Local No. 180, in negotiating an agreement for 53 lay employees of the hospital, the board announced today.

The board reported that the hospital directors had been unable to agree on a scale of wages and seven statutory holidays per year requested by the union.

Reeve Wootton Gives Gyros Glimpse Into History Of Oak Bay

"There are now 3,266 single house dwellings, 143 duplexes, 16 apartment houses and two hotels in the municipality of Oak Bay," Reeve R. A. B. Wootton informed members of the Victoria Gyro Club Monday at a luncheon held in the Empress Hotel.

Speaking on "Municipal Affairs in Oak Bay," Reeve Wootton stated that in 1855 the whole area of Oak Bay was owned entirely by five parties. The Hudson's Bay Company owned 1,080 acres; John Tod, 480 acres; J. D. Pemberton, 650 acres; William McNeill, 240 acres, and Isobel Ross, 76 acres.

First home was erected in the district in 1851 by the late John Tod and it still stands today on Heron Street, the speaker stated.

In 1906 the municipality was formally incorporated under its first reeve, W. E. Oliver, who served a six-year term. First hotel was established in 1864 and the Willows Exhibition Grounds were completed in 1887. The Mount Baker Hotel was constructed in 1893 but burned down nine years later. The present Victoria Golf Course was established in 1893 and was the oldest 18-hole course on the Pacific Coast, he said.

Mr. Wootton compared the property values in the municipality during the past 40 years. In 1906, he stated the figure was $632,985, while in 1949 it was $15,755,920. The population increased from 4,000 in 1907 to 11,500 in 1948.

Regarding the municipality's stand on amalgamation, he continued, it was the duty of the council to function as a municipality. The reeve stated the policy would continue until such time as the ratepayers petition for amalgamation. If the figure were large enough, the council would have to prepare a by-law.

Carpenters Back Compromise Plan

A United Brotherhood of Carpenters, Joiners, Shipwrights and Caulkers of America Local 1598 membership meeting Monday night unanimously decided to seek a maintenance of membership clause in a proposed new agreement with Victoria Building Industries Exchange.

The maintenance of membership proposal was suggested by the Labor Relations Board as a compromise for settlement of the lengthy negotiations for a new contract. Difference over wages were worked out following a strike last December.

The meeting re-elected R. E. Hill as president, and chose the following officers: L. W. Noble, vice-president; J. Finnerty, recording secretary; Al Staley, financial secretary; M. Punt, treasurer; V. Midgely, conductor; E. Whitehead, warden; J. Noble and E. Oliver, trustees.

Hospital Employees Seek Certification

Application to the provincial government for certification as an employees' bargaining agent is expected to be made by the Hospital Employees' Association at Royal Jubilee by the end of the week.

J. W. Gillis, assistant accountant at the hospital and secretary-treasurer of the association, said that more than 200 employees at Jubilee have signed up with the association. The move for certification is expected to be contested by the Victoria Hospital Employees' Federal Union, T.L.C. The latter came into existence a week prior to the employee vote.

Transport Hearing Wednesday

In Victoria today for the sitting of the Royal Commission on Transportation, which will open here Wednesday, are, left to right: Hon. W. F. A. Turgeon, K.C., chairman; Dr. Henry Forbes Angus, professor of economics, University of B.C.; and Dr. Harold Adams Innis, professor of political economy, University of Toronto.

Representations containing recommendations on rail transportation problems in Canada will be made Wednesday morning when the Royal Commission on Transportation opens its first Victoria hearing in the Court House at 10.

C. W. Brazier, Vancouver, counsel who is in charge of the province's case to the commission, said Monday the government would be advocating a new method of establishing standard freight rates and making them uniform throughout the country.

He added, however, that recognition must be given to the fact that special rates in certain areas for certain specific commodities could exist outside the proposed standard rate.

Formation of the commission arose from representations to the government that "by reason of economic, geographic and other disadvantages, certain sections of Canada are adversely affected by transportation difficulties."

Under the general inquiry heading the commission is pursuing its investigations on six main lines. These are:

1. A review and report on economic, geographic and other disadvantages, if any, under which certain sections of the country find themselves.

2. Review of the Railway Act.

3. Review of the capital structure of the C.N.R.

4. Review of the present day accounting methods and statistical procedure of railways in Canada.

5. Review of the report on the results achieved under the Canadian National-Canadian Pacific Act of 1933 and amendments thereto.

6. Report upon any feature of the Railway Act or railway legislation generally that might advantageously be revised.

Says Lack Of Water Not Main Cause Of Saanich Fire Losses

Fire Chief Joseph Law of Saanich today gave a word picture of the problems facing his fire-fighting department on the controversial question relating to an adequate water supply to combat house fires in areas not serviced by hydrants in the municipality.

"It is the opinion of many that if the fire department could carry more water on its equipment, or obtain more water from other sources, there would be very few, if any, total losses," he said.

"Also, many seem to think that any well is suitable for fire department use—and I would like to point out that both of these opinions are definitely incorrect," the chief went on.

He said only a few of the many domestic wells in Saanich were of any value to the department, due to them being either drilled wells, too deep or containing an inadequate supply of water.

"Further, our records show that out of 18 total losses since 1940, only three or four could have been saved if more water was available," Chief Law said.

He said there were many reasons for the total losses other than inadequate water supplies "which seem to me to be insurmountable—such as delayed telephone connections, people living considerable distances from main roads without telephones and people attempting to extinguish fires until it is too late for the department to save them."

In addition to this, Chief Law pointed out, the department still has great distances to cover before reaching some of the fires.

"Saanich is a large area and fire fighting by any department is a difficult problem. However, losing houses through fire is distressing to the department as well as the public—but in most cases cannot be avoided under present conditions," Chief Law concluded.

Speaking to a group at 1414 Stanley Avenue, Mr. Caird said "the Liberal government, after 14 years in power, is still promising health insurance which was on its program in 1919."

"The C.C.F., who puts people first, says there is a crying need for nation-wide health insurance for everyone, regardless of income," he said.

Mr. Caird described as "sheer tonfoolery," Trade Minister Howe's statement that Canada had an assured place in world markets.

Pearkes Scores Liberal Policy On Canadian Merchant Marine

The federal government's policy toward Canada's merchant marine was severely criticized Monday night by Maj-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, Progressive Conservative candidate in Nanaimo, addressing an election rally in Hampton Hall.

Gen. Pearkes said that during the war the government had built 253 ships, 109 of them 10,000-ton freighters which cost $1,500,000 each. All of these ships had been sold, the majority of them to foreign countries. On the 10,000-ton vessels the government took a loss of $1,000,000 a ship.

The government had, promised, said Gen. Pearkes, that the money realized in sale of the ships would be used to build modern cargo vessels.

"But not one ship had been built since the end of the war," he said.

While Trade Minister C. D. Howe had promised every encouragement to shipbuilding, one had only to look at the yards in Victoria to see how much had been done—nothing, the general said.

Much worse than making a bad deal in the sale of the ships was the fact, he said, that the merchant marine was being wiped out and thousands of Canadian sailors were out of jobs because foreign operators of Canadian ships had cheaper labor costs.

The government, Gen. Pearkes continued, had been responsible for the loss of the British market for Canadian goods and this would have serious effects on Canada's economy. The government had tried to obtain markets in the United States, despite the fact the U.S. produced almost the same products as Canada and had the same surpluses, he said.

He said the Liberals had put up a fund of $1,500,000 to pay Nova Scotia apple growers to dig up apple trees, which was easier than finding markets.

The Liberals had established a floor price for New Brunswick potatoes, bought up between 3,000 and 4,000 carloads and instead of finding markets had told farmers to get rid of them as best they could, by feeding them to swine or throwing them back on the land, he said.

Government extravagance, he said, was definitely one of the big issues of the election. A second was trade and only, he said, by keeping the productive machinery going, and by exporting Canadian produce could Canada escape the menace of Communism.

Canadians, he continued, must be relieved of the burden of excessive taxation by reducing "reckless extravagance." George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, was the one man in Canada with the courage and ability to do the job, he said.

Caird Outlines Health Insurance Program Of C.C.F.

William Caird, C.C.F. federal candidate in Victoria, said here Monday night that a health insurance plan to provide hospital care, proper nutrition, medical care and dental services was what the Canadian people need and what the C.C.F. would provide.

Speaking to a group at 1414 Stanley Avenue, Mr. Caird said "the Liberal government, after 14 years in power, is still promising health insurance which was on its program in 1919."

"The C.C.F., who puts people first, says there is a crying need for nation-wide health insurance for everyone, regardless of income," he said.

Mr. Caird described as "sheer tonfoolery," Trade Minister Howe's statement that Canada had an assured place in world markets.

'John Loves Mary' On Royal Screen

"John Loves Mary," Warner Bros' new romantic farce, with both Ronald Reagan and Jack Carson, and introducing the sensational new personality, Patricia Neal, opened today at the Royal Theatre. It is the story of an ex-war hero who has an English war-bride whom he married just so that he could bring her to this country for his buddy. The complications he gets into because he cannot tell his girl and her parents make for some real hilarious comedy.

CAPSULE REVIEW

"The Great Gatsby" (Par) struggles to recreate the lost generation of the '20s. It never quite succeeds, perhaps because that era now seems unreal and unbelievable. The F. Scott Fitzgerald characters never come entirely to life. Allan Ladd tries hard as the faded young opportunist. He's supported by Betty Field, MacDonald Carey, Ruth Hussey and Barry Sullivan.

STRIP-AND-END PLAY WINS 4-HEART BID

I found the May issue of The Bridge World unusually interesting. Today's hand is from an article entitled "The 1949 Intercollegiate," written by Luther A. Dittmer of New York. Dittmer was director of the recent intercollegiate tournament at Columbia University.

In playing any set of prepared hands, Dittmer pointed out that a player must always be on the lookout for the unusual. In this hand Dittmer said that too many pairs stayed in three no trump doubled, which of course was easily defeated.

Those who bid four hearts could make the hand with careful play. The opening lead of the king of diamonds (playing at four hearts) must be won with the ace. Then declarer must shorten himself by leading a diamond and ruffing it. A small heart is played toward dummy's king. When East plays the eight and the king holds, West showing out, declarer receives the bad news on the trump distribution.

He must now ruff another diamond. The king of clubs must be played, knocking out the ace. When West returns a spade, it is won in dummy with the queen, then another diamond is ruffed by declarer.

Now all he has to do is to cash his queen and jack of clubs and ace of spades. This leaves him with three trumps. East also has three trumps (see underlining). North leads a small trump which East has to win, and he must give declarer another trump trick. Thus the contract is made.

PLAZA THEATRE

The attraction at the Plaza Theatre today is Seymour Nebenzahl's "Atlantis," a filmization of Pierre Benoit's famous novel, "Atlantis," a story of the fabled lost continent.

Maria Montez, typifying the popular conception of pagan beauty, plays Queen Antinea, absolute ruler of the legendary kingdom, who is reputed to be a descendant of Neptune. As the youthful French Spahis officer who is enslaved by her beauty, Jean Pierre Aumont co-stars.

Miss Edna Woolfrey, fashion and washability expert of the Lux Educational Services, Lever Brothers Limited, is in town to present "Fashion Whirls in Luxables" all this week at T. Eaton Co. Ltd. lingerie dept. This display features six miniature mannequins beautifully gowned in fine washables.

Where To Go Tonight

ATLAS—"The Kissing Bandit," starring Kathryn Grayson.

CAPITOL—"Caught," starring James Mason and Barbara Bel Geddes.

DOMINION—"Hangover Square," starring Linda Darnell and Laird Cregar.

FOX—"When My Baby Smiles at Me," starring Betty Grable and Dan Dailey.

PLAZA—Jean Pierre Aumont and Maria Montez in "Atlantis."

RIO—"Dark Passage," starring Humphrey Bogart.

ROYAL—"John Loves Mary," starring Jack Carson and Patricia Neal.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Two costly British imports make their screen debuts in "Caught," new Enterprise film released by M-G-M and now showing at the Capitol Theatre. The first is the noted English star, James Mason, making his first appearance in an American motion picture.

The other is an elaborate setting in the film, a game room in the mansion of a supposed multimillionaire, enacted by Robert Ryan. The complete room was purchased from the owners of Robley Manor near Chichester, England, was dismantled and sent by ship and train to Hollywood.

Fire In Philippines

MANILA (AP)—Fire swept the commercial district of Masbate Monday. Losses are estimated at $2,000,000. Masbate is a city of 25,000 population 230 miles southeast of Manila.

CANOCO PARK, Calif. (AP)—Lucille Ball and her band-leader husband, Desi Arnaz, were remarried Sunday at Our Lady of the Valley Church. The comedienne and Arnaz were wed in a civil ceremony Nov. 30, 1940. They have no children.

MAPLE BAY is one of the most beautiful natural harbors on Vancouver Island. The mountains form a lush green backdrop for the sheltered beach and anchorage. As in all the waters off the coast of the island, there is wonderful fishing in Maple Bay.

Log Breakwater Urged For Comox

COMOX—A floating log breakwater for the protection of floats at the new Comox wharf has been recommended by the federal Department of Public Works in a letter to village commissioners by J. L. Gibson, M.P., in the last House.

Noted also in the plans outlined in the letter was the department's proposal to improve accommodations for fishing boats at Courtenay. A plebiscite will be held shortly on an amendment to the village zoning by-law, with reference to designation of a second portion of Comox Avenue as a commercial zone.

W. H. Jackson Dies

Walter Herbert Jackson, aged 72, who was well known throughout western Canada, passed away at his family residence, 965 Victoria Avenue.

Mr. Jackson came to Victoria four years ago from Pincher Creek, Alta. He was a member of the Pacific Club here.

Funeral services were held Monday morning with Rev. W. W. McPherson officiating. Burial took place at Colwood Park.

Fire in Ontario

SOUTHAMPTON, Ont. (CP)—Fire of undetermined origin swept through the plant of the Southampton Furniture Company Monday, causing damage estimated at more than $50,000. Southampton is on Lake Huron, 20 miles west of Owen Sound.

S.A. Band Sergeant William Bowles Dies

William Horace Bowles, band sergeant of the Salvation Army's Citadel Corps, died in Royal Jubilee Hospital at the age of 57.

Mr. Bowles became a Salvation Army officer on the prairies before coming to Victoria 21 years ago.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2:30 at the Salvation Army Citadel, Pandora Avenue. Maj. Fred Howlett will officiate with interment at Colwood.

PORT CREDIT, Ont. (CP)—Crown authorities Monday drew a speeding charge against Carlo de Lima Cavacanti, commercial counsellor of the Brazilian Embassy in Ottawa.

Aylmer Catsup

... makes meats and vegetables so tasty

A pure catsup, like Aylmer, is wholesome eating for the children, say nutritionists. For Aylmer makes it "home-style" from Canada's finest, red-ripe tomatoes. Children love its "true tomato flavor" and need Vitamin C.

Does Your LAZY LIVER Need a Gentle 'Nudge'?

If 2 pints of liver bile don't flow every day into your intestines—you may not digest your food fully—and constipation may result!
So a "lazy liver" may mean you waken with a coated tongue—feel slowed-up, headachy, "half-alive"! That's why so many people take Bile Beans at bedtime—whenver irregular meal-times, lack of exercise, or eating too much fatty food, has affected the liver. All-vegetable Bile Beans work while you sleep—gently, yet effectively. Try BILE BEANS today. Over 7 million boxes sold last year.

CANADA NEEDS HEALTHY RAILWAYS TO SERVE HER PEOPLE

Canada's Railways mean
EMPLOYMENT for over 190,000 Canadians

It takes skilled manpower and lots of it to keep the railways rolling... to move passengers and freight (145 million tons of it last year!)... to carry the essentials of life and work to every community. So it's not surprising that the railways are among Canada's biggest employers. Last year their payroll totalled $544,000,000.

Then, too, the railways are heavy buyers of so many things, from paper cups to locomotives. Their continued power to employ and to buy is therefore linked with the welfare of countless thousands of other Canadians doing all sorts of jobs in all parts of Canada. The fact is...

THE RAILWAYS ARE CANADA'S BIGGEST BUYERS

This advertisement is one of a series pointing out the railways' key place in Canada's economy. As Canada's largest buyers of railway rolling stock and equipment, this company and its employees are directly concerned with the railway industry. Canadian Car & Foundry's eight modern plants turn out thousands of railway cars of every type, both passenger and freight. They are fully equipped to supply Canada's railways with rolling stock of the latest type to meet the growing needs of our expanding economy.

Last year they bought well over 400 million dollars' worth of goods, most of which were grown, mined and manufactured in Canada.

There are 3,000 wooden ties to every mile of track. Last year for wood products, including ties, the railways spent nearly 30 million dollars.

The railways also spent other millions for rolling stock of all types: for paper products, tickets, timetables, booklets, stationery; for food, textiles and a host of other products.

Adding taxes, duty, insurance, interest charges and other items, the railways spend close to one billion dollars a year.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
NEW YORK (AP)—Current events: "Prothoter" Joe Louis passed up a scheduled trip to the Joe Walcott and Ezard Charles training camps the other day because Don Newcombe was pitching for the Brooklyn Dodgers in Chicago. . . . Probably was a smart idea. . . . Frank Kovacs and Don Budge, supposedly arguing about their seedings in the pro tennis championships, teamed up together in the doubles. . . . When the Texas Legislature recently passed a bill making it illegal to "throw a bottle, cushion, rock or any other missile at any game," one lawmaker commented: "This may be the only way to stop Doak Walker."

THE HEATHS' ON
The Bluefield, W.Va., Blue-Grays of the Appalachian League suffered their first shutout of the season the other night at the hands of the Welch miners. . . . The next day Jeff Heath, who is acting as touring coach for the Braves' farm system, came to town and gave the Athletics a short batting lesson. . . . That night Bluefield belted Welch by the football score of 26 to 6. . . . Bluefield never will complain that too many Jeffs spoil the broth.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Back to Walcott-Charles, we don't quite understand the determined efforts of the "Octopus, Inc." publicity staff to play down Charles and play up Walcott. Observation by a Chicago baseball writer after watching the Dodgers: "That team could win the pennant—if Branch Rickey doesn't try to improve it."

40 Drowned In Flood

ISTANBUL (Reuter)—Forty persons were reported drowned and 80 injured during 16 hours of torrential rain which flooded the town of Tokat in northern Turkey Monday.

The flooding rendered 5,000 homeless and submerged thousands of acres of cultivated land.

No Place For Japs In Davis Cup Tennis

MELBOURNE (Reuter)—Prime Minister Chifley said today that the Japan must be allowed "contacts" with other countries in "due course and sport might be the least embarrassing way of doing it."

In a letter to Sir Norman Brookes, president of the Lawn Tennis Association of Australia, he added:

"I feel, however, that a major section of the Australian public may not like to see Japan competing against Australians, especially in Australia."

The association had asked Chifley's advice about a request by Japan to be readmitted to the Davis Cup competition.

It decided to instruct its representative in London to oppose Japan's readmission.

Cordova Day—Members of Cordova P.T.A. will meet on Thursday at 8 p.m. in the school. A special feature will be a play by pupils of the graduating class. Election of officers will be held and refreshments served.

British Track Stars Impressive

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—With speedy Oxonian Nicholas Stacey doubling in the two dashes, the combined Oxford-Cambridge track team Monday defeated the Harvard-Yale forces, eight places to five, in their 15th international meet.

Three meet records were broken as the Britons took an 8 to 7 lead in this rivalry that began 50 years ago at the Queen's Club in London.

Roger Bamister, Oxford's smooth-running 20-year-old miler, turned in a 4:11.9 race to beat a 16-year-old mark, set here by an Oxonian Olympic champion, Jack Lovelock, by 7-10ths of a second.

Yale's great Jim Fuchs, a 1948 Olympian, boosted the meet's shotput mark to 56 feet 8 1/2 inches, and Christopher Brasher of Cambridge, by turning on an amazing 61.1 lap, lowered the two-mile mark to 9:16.5.

The fleet Stacey captured the 100-yard dash in 9.9 seconds, won the 220 in 21.3 seconds, and ran the anchor leg for the 440 yard relay team that registered a 42.5-second triumph in the 13th and final event.

The team victory, however, was clinched when Robert Edwards of Cambridge defeated Harvard's Harold Geick by 1 1/2 inches with a broad jump of 21 feet, 10 inches.

More Women M.P.'s Urged By Coldwell

INDIAN HEAD, Sask. (CP)—Need for more women members of Parliament was emphasized Monday by M. J. Coldwell, national C.C.F. leader.

"Parliament can be humanized by the election of more women members," he told an afternoon election meeting in this southern Saskatchewan agricultural community. The local constituency of Qu'Appelle was represented in the last Parliament by Mrs. Gladys Strum, Canada's only woman M.P., C.C.F. candidate in the June 27 election. Mrs. Strum spoke briefly from the same platform as Mr. Coldwell.

The C.C.F. member said that in the House the case for "wise and generous" expenditures on health had been made by Mrs. Strum.
